WILL HEAR ADDITIONAL ARGUMENT ON SULZER

Judges Want to Know Where Testimony of Ryan and Others Comes In.

MAY REACH DECISION TODAY

All Future Deliberations Will be Held in Secret is the Prevailing Idea in Albany—Public Will Get Result Only.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 13.—The high court of impeachment which is to decide the fate of Governor William Sulzer failed today to reach a verdict.

After a session of an hour and a half, virtually all of which was held in secret, the court unexpectedly adjourned until 11:30 tomorrow to permit further argument by counsel relative to the testimony of Allan A. Ryan, Ambassador Henry Morgenthau and Duncan W. Peck, superintendent of public works.

This testimony had to do with alleged efforts of Governor Sulzer to suppress evidence against him and to obtain political influence to stop the trial. The offenses alleged in this connection were not specified in the articles of impeachment and upon the convening of court today, Judge Miller of the Court of Appeals raised the question as to whether they fitted in. The executive session at once followed.

When the public again was admitted, it was announced by Presiding Judge Cullen that the court desired counsel to argue as to whether the acts and conversations of the Governor testified to by Peck, Morgenthau and Ryan "can be considered as being casts of misconduct for which the respondent can be convicted under article 4, or only as corroborative evidence of the other allegations stated in the charges, and whether the court has the power to amend the articles if they are insufficient to include those acts so as to include them."

Suppression of Evidence.

Article 4 is the one dealing with the suppression of evidence alleging that the Governor tried to prevent Frederick L. Colwell, Louis A. Sarecky and Melville B. Fuller from testifying before the Frawley investigating committee. It mentions neither Ryan, Morgenthau, nor Peck, but does include in its text the words "all other persons."

The testimony of none of these witnesses was disputed by the defense as far as contradictory evidence was concerned, and for that reason is held to be considered by some of the members of the court the strongest adduced in proof of the Governor's alleged unfitness to hold office. In view of the fact that each of the eight articles is to be voted on separately, it was found that when the members of the court were ready to convene that there was much doubt as to under which article the testimony should be considered.

It was said furthermore, that some of the members felt that in the event that the court should grant the as yet undecided motion to strike out articles 1, 2 and 6, the "money articles" on the constitutional ground that they dealt with offenses committed before the Governor took office, practically little would be left of the case.

They thought it was desirable, therefore, it was said, either to strengthen article 4 by including the Ryan, Morgenthau, Peck charges or to set them apart as an additional article.

The opening of court was delayed more than half an hour on account of a conference of the nine judges of the Court of Appeals. It was said that the Ryan-Morganthau-Peck testimony was the principal subject of their discussion.

Debates Announced.

It was announced by counsel that former Senator Brackett and John B. Stanchfield would argue the question for the impeachment managers and D. Cady Herrick and Louis Marshall for the defense. The general belief tonight seemed to be that all deliberations of the court henceforth would be in secret and that the public would only know the result.

This was a rainy, gloomy day and superstitious persons who recalled it was the 13th day of the month saw all sorts of illusions in its being the conclusion of the evidence today.

The hour of re-convening of the impeachment court tomorrow was set an hour and a half later than usual in order that the Senatorial members of the court might attend the session of the Legislature set for 11 o'clock.

TROUBLE IN MEXICO BLAMED

For Failure of St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad.

St. Louis, Oct. 13.—One hundred thousand shares of stock of the St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad—one-fourth of the total—was represented at a meeting of the stockholders here this afternoon, called to devise means to harmonize the apparent conflict between the committee of Eastern stockholders and James Campbell, of St. Louis, vice-president of the company who recently invited the co-operation of stockholders in protecting their interests.

A. T. Perkins and S. W. Fordyce, both of St. Louis, were continued as a committee to represent the shareholders who attended today's meeting. Mr. Fordyce said the 'Frisco's failure was due to the trouble existing in Mexico.

"If it had not been for the trouble in Mexico, I don't believe the 'Frisco would be insolvent today," he said. "The Brownsville road was hit hard by that trouble, and that road was one of our most important feeders in the Southwest."

Colonel Fordyce said further the stockholders might be assessed on their holdings, but he did not think the assessment would be large.

GOVERNOR SULZER.

"A GIRL WITH ONE STOCKING"

The South Carolina "Pitchfork" Digs in Old Records and Finds Both Art and Poetry With Which He Bedecks Record.

Washington, Oct. 13.—A little protective pastoral entitled "A Girl With One Stocking," enlivened the Senate proceedings today when presented by Senator Tillman, who recently illuminated the pages of the Congressional Record with cartoons of his income cow.

Mr. Tillman claimed no credit for the contribution, but acknowledged it was originally presented by Senator Zeb Vance in the tariff debate in 1889.

"Our Mary had a little lamb and her part was most intent," it rhymed, "to make its wool, beyond its worth bring 56 per cent."

The classic went on to tell that "where e'er the poor girl went, one leg was warmed with wool and one with 56 per cent."

"Now with free wool," said Senator Tillman, "Mary will have to let her women friends wear stockings on both legs, instead of one—something they have not been able to do in 20 years."

CHANGE IN COMMISSION.

Chas. A. Prouty, Republican, Resigns to Take Other Work.

Washington, Oct. 13.—Charles A. Prouty will retire in the near future as a member of the Inter-State Commerce Commission to become director of the physical valuation of railways.

No formal announcement has been made, but arrangements for the changes have been completed with the Inter-State Commerce Commission and with President Wilson, with whom Judge Prouty had a conference today.

Commissioner Prouty has been a member of the commission since December, 1896.

When legislation was enacted providing for the physical valuation of railways the commission selected Judge Prouty to have general charge of the work. It became evident that it would be practically impossible for him to continue his labors as a member of the commission and give, at the same time adequate attention to the infinite details of the railway valuation work.

Commissioner Prouty's retirement probably will be about November 1st. That will make two vacancies on the commission for President Wilson to fill this year. The term of Commissioner Judson C. Clements, of Georgia, will expire in December. Generally, it is expected that he will be re-appointed by President Wilson. He is a Democrat.

Judge Prouty is a resident of Newport, Vt., and a Republican.

LIMIT TO CAMPAIGNING.

Money for Political Purposes Cannot be Secretly Handled.

Washington, Oct. 13. — Limitations upon the right of individuals or committees to collect campaign funds in one State and send them secretly to another for Presidential or Congressional campaigns, were discussed by the Senate today, during several hours debate on the Clapp bill to prohibit inter-State transportation of such funds.

The Senate adjourned tonight without final action on the bill.

The measure was designed to prohibit the financing of National campaigns by the great interests in New York and elsewhere, but Senator Cummins contended during the debate that it would prohibit the American Federation of Labor or the National Woman Suffrage League from sending contributions from one State to another. Senator Clapp insisted the bill would not prohibit the mailing of literature, the employment of speakers or the use of advertising, and that any use of campaign funds outside these lines, if attempted secretly or improperly, should be made punishable. The bill would permit National committees to send funds from one State to another when those funds are properly accounted for in their public statements.

Washington, Oct. 13. — President Wilson today nominatqd Frank W. Shield to be postmaster at Hampton, Va.

RESCUED TELL OF BURNING VESSEL

Carmania With One of Volturno's Pas engers Aboard Reaches Port

POURED OIL ON TROUBLED SEA

Eleven Vessels Stood by Powerless to Help Distressed Ship Until Narragansett Arrived and Sprayed Waters With Oil.

Fish Guard, Oct. 13.—The Carmania, first to the aid of the doomed steamer Volturno, arrived here shortly after 2 o'clock this morning.

Capt. Barr positively refused to say a word about the Volturno until he had delivered his report to the company at Liverpool.

He referred would-be interviewers to the ship's bulletin for an accurate account of the tragedy. The greater part of the contents of this already had become history.

The fire on the Volturno appears to have originated in her cargo hold. When it became evident that the flames had gained the mastery, Capt. Francis Inch devoted all his energy to the salvation of his passengers.

Balked in his attempts to establish communication between the Carmania and the Volturno, Capt. Barr sent out broadcast wireless signals which brought to the vicinity an international fleet to the succor of the doomed ship.

At about 7 o'clock in the evening, Capt. Inch succeeded in lowering a boat with a crew of four men with the intention of taking a line to the Grosser Kurfuerst.

The small boat, after a desperate struggle, reached the German liner's side only to be dashed to pieces. About half past nine at night, Capt. Inch sent a last despairing appeal and 20 minutes later there occurred a terrific explosion which it seemed would seal the doom of those on the stricken ship.

Sea Moderated.

After the rescue of Walter Trintepohl, the only survivor taken on board the Carmania, hope of saving any more of those in the Volturno had been almost abandoned when the sea suddenly moderated and the rescuing ships were able to get away a number of life boats and take off all the survivors.

T. T. Watson, of Philadelphia, a passenger of the Carmania, said that the chief credit for saving those on the Volturno was undoubtedly due to the oil ship Narragansett. "Only a few good swimmers," he declared, "would have survived from the ill-fated ship had not the Narragansett made free use of oil to calm the terrible waves.

"When the Carmania arrived, Capt. Barr, with a daring amounting seemingly to foolhardiness, instructed First Officer Gardiner to lower a small boat. This, after terrible buffeting, regained the Carmania with only three oars intact. After this miraculous escape Capt. Barr did not again attempt to launch a single boat. Hence our ship saved only one passenger, who swam to her.

"Capt. Barr stood off and directed operations, acting in effect as commander of the fleet gathered about the Volturno. The Carmania tried both fore and aft oil sprays but without effect. The captain sent out wireless calls in all directions for an oil ship and his efforts were rewarded by an answer from the Narragansett.

"As soon as the Narragansett began to spray oil about the doomed ship the waves subsided as by magic. Soon

C. A. Webb Slated For Marshalship

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., Oct. 13.—Should Senator Overman appoint Charles A. Webb, United States marshal for the Western district, he will offer Manley McDowell, of Morganton, a position in the government service paying him in the neighborhood of $300 per month.

This statement was made tonight by Senator Overman when questioned with reference to the Western appointments. Senator Overman did not say that he would not give Mr. McDowell the marshalship, but it is generally understood here that Chairman Webb will be offered this place and in that event McDowlell will be taken care of in a way which it is believed will be entirely satisfactory to him.

Two vacancies on the Inter-State Commerce Commission within the next six months are in prospect. The first occurs December 31st, when the term of Commissioner Clements, of Georgia, expires. The second place soon to be open is that held by Chas. A. Pouty, of Vermont. The latter's term does not expire until 1914, but he desires to retire earlier.

Commissioner Clements is 67 years old and has served upon the commission since 1892. He will be a candidate for re-appointment. But it will be argued that his age should prevent his re-appointment to another seven-year term.

A rumor is going about tonight that Charles A. Webb, of Asheville, is a candidate, along with Former Governor Glenn, for one of the places. Senator Overman said there was absolutely no truth in the report that Webb was a candidate for the place. It is known, however, that Glenn's friends are trying to land him one of the jobs. — P. R. EPISCOPALS HAVE LONG DISCUSSION

When Proposition to Change Name Is Made By High Church.

MAY REVISE PRAYER BOOK

Young Lady Makes Unique Offer of Self to Go as Missionary—Auxiliary Vote to Accept Her Offer—Debate.

New York, Oct. 13.—The suggestion that the corporate name of the Protestant Episcopal church be changed to the American Catholic church precipitated a long debate today at the general convention of the church. At the instance of the high church delegates it was voted by the House of Deputies to appoint a commission to revise the Prayer Book, but before this decision was reached the low church delegates had succeeded in having restricting amendments made to the resolution that authorized appointfent of the commission.

The resolution to "revise and enrich" the boog of common prayer was offered by the diocese of California, and the missionary district of Arizona. Dr. Randolph H. McKim, of Washington, a low church leader, offered an amendment reading "provided that no proposals to change the title page of the prayer book or the name of the church shall be referred to said commission. By a vote of 257 to 197 the amendment was defeated.

Dr. Edward L. Goodwin, of Virginia, offered an amendment:

"Provided that no proposition involving the faith and doctrine of the church shall be considered or reported upon by the commission."

Dr. Leighton Parks, of New York, while speaking of the apparent effort being made to change the name of the church was hissed "well some of us believe," he said, "that if you take away the protestant character of this church, you rob it of a great treasure."

Dr. Goodwin's amendment was carried by acclamation.

Amendment Too Broad.

Judge James McConnell, of New Orleans, declared that Dr. Goodwin's amendment was so broad in scope that it still left the way open for the commission to make a decision on the change of name that would stand for the whole house. The house then reconsidered the McKim resolution it has voted down, and proceeded to pass the resolution with both amendments.

The women's auxiliary of the board of mission at a meeting tonight decided how to apportion the $307,000 it has collected. All but $20,000 will be devoted to home and foreikn missions.

The auxiliary voted to accept the offer, made in a unique manner, of Miss Virginia Taylor Singleton, of South Carolina, to devote herself to the cause of foreign missions. Last Thursday when this year's united offering for the women's auxiliary was being taken, Miss Singleton left a plain envelope among the checks,gold and bills in the alms basin. A message in the envelope read:

"Silver and gold have I none. In the words of St. Peter; "such as I have I give unto thee" followed by Miss Singleton's offer to work in the mission field.

A sweeping denunciation of the present system of divorce reached the House of Deputies today in a resolution introduced by Rev. C. F. J. Wrigley, of the diocese of Long Island. The resolution asked the convention to express its sympathy with the effort of the international committee on marriage and divorce which is trying to have the constitution of the United States amended to enable Congress to enact uniform marriage and divorce laws.

After a long debate the House of Bishops this afternoon decided by a narrow margin not to open its sessions to the public. The vote against the proposition was 54 to 49.

San Antonio, Texas, Oct. 13.—At a meeting of business men here today it was decided to abandon the attempt to secure the 1913 Vanderbilt cup automobile races. The expenditure entailed was the reason assigned.

OUTLINES

In a talk to a delegation of country bankers, Secretary McAdoo stated that in his opinion very few if any of the National banks would hold out, if the present Currency bill was passed.

The judges in the Sulzer trial failed to reach a verdict yesterday and will hear additional argument today. It is thought a decision will be reached this afternoon or tomorrow.

Representatives Underwood and Hobson, both of Alabama, and both candidates for United States Senator from that State, passed some rather heated remarks in Congress yesterday regarding their candidacy.

The eleven ships which went to the assistance of the Volturno are reaching port one by one and the rescued aboard are telling their version of the fire.

Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the English suffragette, who is expected to arrive in New York Friday, may be detained by the Ellis Island immigration authorities.

Germany has dispatched a battleship to the Mexican waters. The condition of affairs in that country being deemed sufficient cause for such a move.

Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, has again unearthed an old Record of fun had in the Senate back in 1888 when the tariff question was up for debate. He read it amid much applause.

NATIONAL BANKS WILL NOT HOLD OUT

So Declared Secretary McAdoo to Delegation of Country Bankers

WANTS CURRENCY BILL RUSHED

Denounced as Traitorous Report That Government Two Per cent Bonds Had Reached a Dangerous Point.

Washington, Oct. 13.—"I have no more idea that any considerable number of National banks will refuse to go into the new Federal Reserve System than I have that I shall fly over Washington monument," said Secretary McAdoo today in discussing the Administration Currency bill with a delegation of country bankers from the American Bankers' Association here today in conference with the Senate Finance committee.

The committee of callers plied Mr. McAdoo with questions about the circulating privilege, the re-discounting provisions and other parts of the pending bill.

The Secretary said that while he had been giving bankers as a class right-of-way in his office with a view to learning their views and getting information, the bill had been framed with a view to benefitting all classes of people. "If we wait until everybody gets together on a measure," he added, "we never will have a beginning on currency legislation."

Denouncing as traitorous reports that the government 2 per cent bonds had reached a danger point when at 94, Mr. McAdoo said that while the government could not guarantee prices of its bonds there was nothing to impair their value and the government's faith was back of them. He added that he regarded the bonds a good investment.

"Ledger the Currency Bill."

The Secretary advised the bankers to "ledger the currency bill" and added that in thus figuring out both sides they would find the balance in favor of the bill.

The bankers wanted some provision for retiring the 2 per cent bonds on which the present currency is based. They suggested refunding by higher interest-paying bonds or retirement at not less than par.

The provision to force National banks maintaining savings departments to segregate a portion of their assets for that purpose and invest savings deposits in special kinds of securities was attacked. The bankers also declared that the function given the Federal reserve banks under the bill of acting free of charge as a clearing house for checks of member banks would deprive them of an important part of their profits, now derived from the collection from out-of-town checks. They also urged that the bill be amended to allow them to carry a portion of their reserves in the reserve city banks with which they now do business.

S. D. Scudder, of Richmond, Va., who described himself as an "insurgent banker," endorsed the bill generally, but recommended a number of amendments. He thought there was no conspiracy against the bill at the Boston conference, but that supporters of the administration bill did not have an opportunity to present their views.

"There was no lack of good faith," he said. "The leaders simply were trying to hurry things along."

Rival Candidates In Heated Debate

Washington, Oct. 13.—Representative Richmond Pearson Hobson and ihs colleague, Majority Leader Underwood, engaged in a bitter debate on the floor of the House today over the Senatorial contest in their State, in which they are rival candidates.

The oratorical duel was precipitated by Mr. Hobson reiterating utterances he made last week in a speech in Alabama, intimating that Mr. Underwood was the "tool of Wall Street and the liquor interests," and charging that he had gained Alabama's support in the last Presidential campaign under false pretenses.

Cheers from Democrats and Republicans greeted Mr. Underwood as he rose to reply, and later, when Mr. Hobson tried to interrupt there were loud cries of "Sit down; sit down; you've had your time."

The climax of the dramatic scene came when the majority leader, facing about in his place, asked:

"Is there any other man in this chamber who believes the charge that I am, or ever have been the tool of Wall street?"

He was answered by shouts of "No, No!" from both sides of the House.

Speaking to a question of personal privilege in answer to a charge of "absenteeism" made against him last week by Representative Donovan, of Connecticut, Mr. Hobson had devoted an hour to an explanation of his record in Congress. Then he declared that in the campaign for the Senate, the liquor interests were behind every effort to defeat him. Discussing his recent speech and the comment since then, that he was a supporter of Underwood for the Democratic Presidential nomination, Representative Hobson asserted he did not know at that time that Thomas Fortune Ryan had Strong Presentations Sent Mexican Authorities by American Government Asking That No Harm Come to Deputies.

Washington, Oct. 13.—Germany's decision to dispatch a warship to Mexican waters attracted wide attention in official circles here tonight. No intimation had been received here of Germany's intention and President [illegible] was informed only by press dispatches of the action.

No official comment was made on the incident, but it was apparent that the Washington government was not displeased. The sending of a German warship is in line with the policy of other European government which had vessels cruising off the Mexican coasts from time to time during criti-

MAY DETAIN MRS. PANKHURST

Ellis Island Immigration Station May Stop Her Onward March Against America—Many Objections on Both Sides.

Washington, Oct. 8.—When Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the militant British suffragette, arrives on the liner LaProvence this week, probably Friday, she will be detained at the Ellis Island immigrant station, according to present plans, until a special board of inquiry can determine whether she comes within the class of aliens excluded from the United States.

While the immigration authorities have issued no orders for her detention, scores of protests against her admission, lodged with immigration headquarters here and with the local authorities at New York, leave no other course open to the authorities. Officials here say no protest against Mrs. Pankhurst's admission have been received from the society opposed to woman suffrage or from any of its members on behalf of the organization.

An equal number of communications protesting against her exclusion have been received. The controversy which has been stirred up in advance of her landing, officials point out, has created a situation which no single immigration inspector would attempt to settle and no course remains but to detain the British leader until her case can be passed upon by a board of review, as would be done in the case of any other disputed landing.

Court records of Mrs. Pankhurst's activities, her arrest and imprisonments, have been furnished to the authorities at New York. Upon that and upon a hearing that the immigration authorities will decide if any of the suffrage leader's acts have been such as to debar her from the United States. A principal question to be determined will be whether her court record and jail sentences in the cause of votes for women constitute moral turpitude within the meaning of the immigration law.

Officials expect a legal battle to attract the attention of suffragists all over the world. The National Suffrgae Organization probably will aid the British leader. Whether the anti-suffragists will conduct any organized resistence to her landing is not known here. Suffrage leaders intimate that any decision by the immigration authorities adverse to Mrs. Pankhurst may be carried to the courts as was the recent case of Cipriano Castro, which resulted in a victory for the Venezuelan exile.

ANNOUNCE REFERENDUM VOTE.

National Chamber of Commerce Will Count Ballots.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 13.—Officers and directors of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States met in Detroit today to discuss questions of National importance and of vital importance to the business and commerce of the nation. Harry A. Wheeler, of Chicago is president of the organization.

One of the important events of the meeting will be the announcement of the count of a referendum vote taken on the Glass-Owen currency bill some time ago by the 380 commercial organizations affiliated with the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. The sessions of the meeting are executive.

Paris, Oct. 13.—An amateur golfer of London, Dr. H. D. He did the morning and afternoon rounds in 75 and 76 respectively.

All players complained of the excessive length of the Chantilly course —6,655 yards—and it will be shortened tomorrow.

THE LEGISLATURE FINALLY ADJOURNS

Extra Session of North Carolina General Assembly Becomes History.

FINISH REACHED LAST NIGHT

Rate Questions and Constitutional Amendment Proposals Are Out of Way—Other Important Legislation Up.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 13.—The gavels of President Daughtridge, of the Senate, and Speaker Murphy, of the House, fell simultaneously at 8:28 o'clock tonight as the voices of these two presiding officers rang out through legislative halls and the corridors of the State House declaring the 1913 extraordinary session of the North Carolina General Assembly adjourned sine die.

The Senate had held quite a busy evening session while the House waited more or less hilariously the pleasure of the upper branch for final adjournment. The Senate finally adjusted the ever-present Caldwell calf bill, prohibiting the sale or shipment of calves, dead or alive, under one year old, to slaughter for veal. As finally ratified the act applies to Caldwell, Alamance, Alexander, Ashe, Avery, Burke, Cabarrus, Caldwell, Cherokee, Clay, Cleveland, Durham, Franklin Gaston, Graham, Guilford, Henderson, Hoke, Lee, Lincoln, Madison, McDowell, Mitchell, Robeson, Rowan, Rutherford, Moore, Sampson, Wake, Warren, Wilson and Lenoir.

The extraordinary session of the Legislature just adjourned, that was called for the specific purposes of taking action for the settlement of freight rates and passing upon constitutional amendment proposals to be submitted to the people for ratification at the next general election, passed 497 acts and 19 resolutions, the great bulk of them bearing on the veriest local matters in every section of the State.

The principal acts of really State-wide interest are the resolutions accepting the proposal of the inter-State carriers for settlement of the inter-State freight rates, more particularly from the West and outgoing to the West and East, the passage of the bill to reduce intra-State freight rates and provide for special commissions to investigate allegations of any railroad companies that the rates prescribed are confiscatory, providing for a rate expert and additional clerical force for the Corporation Commission, the act carrying the constitutional amendment proposals to be submitted to the people, an act to work convicts on the public roads instead of on railroads for stock in roads built, after present contracts with railroad companies are completed; provision for the completing and opening of the State School for Feeble-minded at Kinston and supplementary appropriations for a number of State institutions.

Senate—Day Session.

The Senate spent much time on the House bill for appropriating $48,000 for repairs at the State Hospital for the Insane here and for taking care of a debt of $4,600 on the new site for the State School for the Blind. Also there is $8,000 of the amount to be used at the Colored Hospital for the Insane at Goldsboro. The fight was over the $4,600 item for the State School for the Blind. Senator Jones and others protested that citizens of Raleigh should be required to pay this or the school should be moved away from Raleigh to some town in the State that offers the best inducements.

Senator Pharr finally offered an amendment that the directors of the school be directed to sell the new site purchased and adjust the claims against the land and that a special commission of three Representatives and two Senators be named to investigate as to possible sites for the school for the blind in other parts of the State and report to the next Legislature.

Pending spirited discussion, there was a motion adopted that Senators Ward, Jones and Pharr as a special committee prepare some amendment to the bill that will adjust the differences as to the blind institution.

The Senate named Senators Ivie, Weaver and Grant as a conference committee on the bill for the constitutional amendments.

The Senate spent some time straightening out a mix-up in the McLean bill to require railroads to furnish weights of carloads of melons and cantaloupes. Certain amendments had been lost and the House had added others.

Insidious Lobby.

Before the matter was satisfactorily fixed Senator McLean made reference in characteristic manner to railroad lawyers being here lobbying. Senator Bryant, of Durham, took him up on the statement and asked if any railroad lawyers had approached Senator McLean during either the regular or special session. Senator McLean replied that they had asked him to vote for one and another pending bills.

"Well, they have not approached me," declared Senator Bryant."

"Maybe they knew they had the Senator from Durham," retorted Senator McLean.

Senator Bryant called up the House bill to allow street railways to operate as far as 100 miles from the home office instead of 50 miles as the law now fixes it. The bill was passed and ordered enrolled for ratification.

Conference Committee Report.

When the conference committee reported the adjustment of the differences with the House as to the carrying constitutional amendments proposals as made in report to Senate, Senator Ward raised the of tacking on an additional amend to the bill that would fix the State county poll tax at $2 and not shall not exceed $2. There long discussion that finally gave the matter the turn of having the report of the conference committee adopted and an attempt by Senator Ward to apply his amendment on final reading of the bill as it came from the House.

In the end the Ward amendment was voted down 12 to 22. The bill then passed its readings the final vote being 34 to 3, the full three-fifths majority required.

Local Bills Passed.

The following local bills were passed: Allow Jones county to vote on stock law; relative to holding Superior Courts in Bladen county; authorize the establishment of a medical dispensary for Winston-Salem; revise the charter of Elizabeth City; amend the act protecting fish in Robeson county; repealing the stock law act of the regular 1913 session as to Pender county; amend the election law of New Hanover county.

The Senate took recess at 2:25 to 3:15. The recess by the House was to the same hour.

Revise Court Procedure.

Much time at the afternoon session of the Senate was devoted to considering a resolution from the House for a special commission of three to revise the court procedure in this State, the resolution finally going to the table. Senator Bryant opposed it because it did not include revision of the rules of the Supreme Court, which he declared were fast tending to deprive poor people of the right of appeal through exacting rules as to printing and filing them.

The Senate finally disposed of the wrangle over the site for the school for the blind by providing that the State treasurer shall pay the $4,600 balance due for the new site out of the proceeds from the sale of 35 acres of land and retain the remainder in the treasury and that a special commission from the Legislature shall investigate as to proposals from other cities to induce the removal of the school for the blind from Raleigh.

Calf Bill Debated.

The bill for the prevention of the killing or shipping of calves in Caldwell county and a number of other counties that had been added by amendment was a bone of contention for a long time and was finally passed in conformity with the last conference report and enrolled for ratification as applying to thirty counties.

There was much levity injected during the discussion of this bill. Senator Peterson made a motion that was ruled out of order by President Daughtridge that the bill be amended to also prohibit the "Exposure of calves."

Bills passed the Senate: Allow $1 per day extra compensation to clerks of the General Assembly; amend the act of 1913 relative to validating registration of certain deeds and mortgages; authorize any consul general to take proof of legal papers; amend charter of town of Greenville; amend law as to holding Superior Courts in Onslow; pay W. H. Benton, Brunswick county, pension for 1912; relative to commissioners of pilotage and navigation under the constitution; prevent the collection and sale of floating logs in Perquimans river.

The Senate took a recess at 5:35 to 8 o'clock with expectation that final adjournment will be at 9 o'clock.

House Waiting on Senate.

Ready to adjourn at a minute's notice, the House was prevented from taking this action only through the delay of the Senate. The proposed amendments were adopted as agreed on by the conference committee without discussion. Another session was held this afternoon to wind up all matters.

Railroads Win Again.

Representative Clark's two cent passenger fare bill found only one other champion in the House and was tabled. Senator Peterson's bill to protect the uniform of soldiers, sailors and guardsmen was also tabled.

Land Development.

The House also tabled a bill by Mr. Kellum providing for the development of agricultural lands in New Hanover, Duplin, Pender, Brunswick and Columbus counties. It was tabled on objection of Mr. Dowd that the bill would shoulder some debts on the State. Mr. Kellum declared it a simple development proposition, that the State would not be put to any expense and that he would accept amendments.

Mr. Bellamy later tried to get the matter reconsidered, but failed. The House passed a joint resolution providing the machinery for summoning witnesses at the investigation of insurance companies.

The Usual Gifts and Gratuities.

Principal Clerk R. L. Huffman was presented with a casserole by his assistants, Speaker Murphy making the presentation speech.

Constitutional Amendments.

The principal changes recommended by the conference committee on constitutional amendment bill are: That mileage of members be five cents each way instead of ten cents; that the House recede from its position favoring local legislation in the matters of bridges, ferries, etc.; that game laws should be passed by the General Assembly; that towns and cities be allowed to levy $1 tax on real property; that the poll tax shall not exceed $2 for State and county purposes and may not exceed that sum for municipalities; that the State shall not lend its credit to any private corporation or municipal corporation; that municipalities shall be formed or their charters changed under general laws.

The vote by which the report was adopted was 73 to 8, and the bill passed third reading, 73 to 7.

House—Afternoon.

At the afternoon session of the House Speaker Murphy announced the appointment of Representatives Sewell, Page and Long as the special commissioners on the part of the House to investigate the conduct of insurance companies in North Carolina, these commissioners to co-operate with two Senators appointed by the president of the Senate.

The Speaker appointed Representative Young, of Vance, to succeed Mr. Turner, resigned, as a member of the joint committee to examine the books of the State treasurer and other State departments.

The House concurred in the Caldwell county calf bill and the bill as to the State School for the Blind by the Senate.

Bills passed to amend the charter of Greenville and to change the terms of court in Onslow county.

No-Fence Law Legislation.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 13.—The special session of the Legislature just adjourned, put "No fence" or stock law in four counties by legislative enactment without a vote of the people. These are Pender, Bladen, Lenoir and Sampson. Pender members of the Legislature prescribed "No Fence" law for their county, rather than have Pender saddled with the expense of fencing in Pender from Sampson and others applying "no fence" law. Brunswick is to vote on the question in December.

Boston, Oct. 13.—Coastwise traffic resumed along the New England coast today after a fog embargo of more than a week. Forty ships sailed from here during the forenoon. At Portland Haven, the largest fleet that ever anchored in that port in years, left at sunrise.

the small boats were enabled to run alongside the liner and take the clinging people from the ladders. The rescue work was over in a very short time. Eleven liners formed the boundary around the film of oil and the survivors were hoisted aboard the various steamers without trouble.

Searched for Boats.

"We then cruised about for two hours searching for the life boats which were said to have escaped, but found only the air tanks which are carried beneath the seats. I do not believe that there is any possibility of the two boats having escaped swamping.

"When we arrived on the scene the fire was burning steadily, but not fiercely. It never at any time got aft of the bridge. When we went to dinner at 7 o'clock in the evening there were no flames, nothing but thick smoke could be seen. At 8 o'clock we were summoned on deck by the re-breaking out of the flames, which soon culminated in an explosion. Then we saw for the first time signs of a panic on the decks of the fated vessel. Several jumped overboard, among them our own survivor, who made a plucky swim, reached the side of the Carmania, but was too weak to get up the ladder. Seaman Heighway was then lowered with a life line through an open cargo port, stripped to the waist. He got beneath the swimmer, whose life belt had become unfastened and supported him. It was a magnificent exhibition of strength and courage. Half an hour had passed from the time the swimmer reached the side of the ship before he was gotten aboard.

"The explosion seemed to come from coal gas collected in the bunkers. For some time the fire burned brightly and then gradually died down. It is impossible to tell how many of those who jumped overboard were drowned."

Arthur Spurgeon, who yesterday sent the Associated Press a story by wireless and described the [illegible] work around the burning vessel, supplemented his dispatches with additional details today:

"The story of what took place on board the Volturno before the arrival of the Carmania," he said, "probably will not be known until Capt. Inch makes his official report.

"Some of the boats were launched in an orderly manner, others declare that a panic took place as a result of the turning over of boats by fear-crazed crews after the fire got out of control. It seems to be agreed that there were 120 souls in these boats, all of whom were killed or drowned.

"Late in the afternoon, after the fleet of rescuing ships had gathered about the doomed ship, the captain of the Volturno sent a message that the situation was becoming desperate. Attempts were made to send two rafts from the Carmania, and these almost reached the burning vessel.

"The night aboard the Carmania was one never to be forgotten. No one got more than snatches of sleep Some prayed for the souls in peril. All were filled with heart-breaking anxiety. Our utter helplessness was appalling. The finest fleet of liners ever gathered in one spot in the mid-Atlantic was practically impotent even with the boats' splendid equipment, to render aid on account of the great waves."

Kroonland Coming.

New York, Oct. 13.—Carrying 74 of the passengers and 14 of the crew of the ill-fated Volturno, the steamship Kroonland, of the Red Star Line, is battling her way towards this port against northwesterly gales and heavy seas some 800 miles east of Sandy Hook.

Reports received here today at the offices of the International Mercantile Company, owners of the line, timed the expected arrival of the Kroonland here as Wednesday night or Thursday morning. Captain Kriehbohm, of the Kroonland, sent a wireless message by way of Cape Race to the offices of his line here today describing in skeleton form the part his ship played in the mid-ocean drama in which the Vuturno met with disaster Thursday morning at 9 o'clock, reported Captain Kriehbohm, the Kroonland's operator picked up the wireless call sent by the Carmania and the Koonland was steered immediately for the indicated spot. The message read: "Carmania, Grosser, Kurfurst and Seydlitz standing by. Immensely high seas, strong gale. Went as near Volutrno as safety permitted. Saw two-thirds of the ship burning like a furnace. Survivors were crowded on afterpart of the steamer. Any delay fatal.

Outlines Rescue Work.

"Called on for volunteers and sent boat commanded by Fifth Officer Kummel. Sea too high, gale too strong. Impossible to try the Lyle guns.

"Later sent two boats under Second Officer Mansfield and Fifth Officer Kummel. They returned later, respectively with three and ten rescued men.

"As the fire on the Volturno kept away from the after-deck kept maneuvering near and sent three boats away which made many trips. At 9 o'clock at night the last boat alongside carried captain. Nobody was left on board. We had succeeded in taking off eighty-eight persons and the captain's dog. Our boats then were replaced in davits and we proceeded full speed ahead.

"The captain of Volturno tells me that one boat with cabin passengers left the ship early in the morning but they were spilled. Fate of the crew uncertain. Another boat containing steering passengers was smashed and all perished. The third boat possibly got away safely. Carmania and Campania searching for it."

A thousand cases of guns were stowed under the after-deck and when Captain Inch, of the Volturno, left his vessel the fire had just reached them, Captain Kriehbohm reported. The Volturno's officers rescued by the Kroonland's boat crews were Captain F. Inch, Chief Engineer R. Dewar, Second Engineer Malcomson, Fourth Engineer J. Bell Field, and Fifth Engineer M. Stegmier, W. Seddon and C. H. Pennington, first and second wireless operators, and H. Ferieham, second steward. Among the passengers, apparently all from the steerage, were three children with parents missing.

Volturno's Crew Heroes.

Another wireless dispatch dated today on board the Kroonland, said:

"Kroonland cabin unites in praise of the heroism of the captain and officers and all crew Volturno."

The Red Star Line officials replied tonight to Captain Kriehbohm directing him to express sympathy to Captain Inch and the officers and passengers of the Volturno. The message continued:

"Do not restrict the use of wireless. Allow passengers to send on their own account any message to friends or to the press that they wish to forward provided they are in accordance with the facts."

Mayor Kline in a letter read at a meeting of the Red Cross agency relief committee, appealed to citizens to assist in the matter of caring for destitute survivors on their arrival here. Various organizations and institutions plan to co-operate with the Red Cross in raising money.

Fire of Unknown Origin.

London, Oct. 3.—The stories told by the passengers of the steamship Carmania and other liners which went to the rescue of the burninig Volturno, describe heroic efforts in the face of almost insuperable difficulties to save the passengers and crew of the doomed ship.

As yet information is lacking as to how the fire originated but it is shown that the fact that not more lives were lost was due in the first place to the wireless and in the second to Captain Barr's happy idea of calling the Narragansett for oil.

There is some discrepancy in the stories with regard to the behavior of the crew, but it is significant that of the crew numbering 93, 78 are reported lost while most of the officers remained aboard and were eventually rescued.

What issues clearly from all the narratives is that practically all the lives were sacrificed in attempts to launch the boats before the arrival of the other steamers and that had Captain Inch known so much help would be forthcoming practically all might have been saved.

Mr. Mansfield, a passenger on the Carmania, said:

"The people on board the Volturno seemed to be paralyzed and helpless. They made no efforts to seize the lines of the rafts thrown to them. I saw one man kiss his wife and children and throw them overboard. He jumped after them. They were seen for only a moment and then disappeared together. The fire is believed to have started in cottonseed oil."

105 Survivors on Grosser.

On Board North German Lloyd Steamer Grosser Kurfuerst, at Sea, by Wireless Telegraph to Cape Race, Oct. 13.—With 105 survivors on board from the steamship Volturno, burned to the water's edge during a gale in mid-Atlantic and abandoned on Friday last, the Grosser Kurfuerst is approaching New York.

Passengers and crew of the Grosser Kurfuerst witnessed some thrilling scenes when their vessel, called by distress signals from the Volturno, arrived in her vicinity.

Upon our arrival the flames from the hold of the Volturno were leaping eighty feet into the air through the hatchway. Fifty or more of the Volturno's crew and steerage passengers had been killed.

The sea was running too high to allow the taking off of the Volturno's passengers.

The Grosser Kurfuerst launched three boats and rescued 32 persons who had been washed into the sea. One of the rescuing life boats was out for six hours, and was nearly lost.

Capt. Barr's Statement.

Liverpool, Oct. 13.—The Carmonia anchored in the Mersey at 1 o'clock this morning. Capt. Barr received newspaper men and told his story of the Volturno rescues. He said when he reached the Volturno, he could see that she was in straits. Her propeller was continually emerging and the davit gear was hanging over the vessel's side. Although it was almost a hopeless thing to do, he felt he must try to lower a boat.

"I tried one," he sad, "I might have tried four. Our men were all quite keen to go out. I was glad afterwards that I did not, but it was only the splendid seamanship of the man in charge that enabled us to get our boat and crew aboard again."

Capt. Barr described how he went in search of the missing boats after the captain of the Volturno had asked him not to go too far and the Seydlitz had agreed to stand by. But before he had proceeded ten miles a message from the Volturno urged him to return. He then consulted with the navigating officers and acted on a suggestion to drop over some life rafts.

"From my position to windward," he said, "it was not possible to send boats. Even if it were I should not have sent them because I had taken my position with a definite object."

Tells of Rescue Work.

Capt. Barr then relates how two boats, one of them from the Minneapolis, smashed against the side of the Carmania in trying to get alongside about 4:30 in the morning. Their crews were saved, but the Carmania lost her position in these maneuvers. About 8:30 o'clock the Carmania got close to the Volturno. Capt. Barr had previously notified all the liners of the failure of his attempt to assist and his belief that nothing more was possible in the existing conditions, would welcome any suggestions for further attempts from the Carmania which was a difficult ship to maneuver, would stand clear and leave them a free hand.

Capt. Barr here remarked that doubtless the point would arise why the Carmania, although arriving first on the scene, only rescued one person.

"I give you my narrative in detail," he said, "in order to show you how I was employed—I think very usefully employed—during the night. I don't think I could have done more."

In answer to questions, Capt. Barr said he was obviously in a position to direct the other vessels and considered it better to direct them than to rush in with the object of saving the passengers. He had heard from a boatman who had got near the Volturno that the people crowded on the ship were quiet, as though a terror were upon them, "I think in the circumstances" concluded Capt. Barr, "that Capt. Inch acted very bravely, considering he was one against so many terror-stricken people."

INTERNATIONAL BALLOON RACE.

Being Held in France—American Entries Holding Their Own.

Charters, France, Oct. 13.—Early this morning the German balloon Hamburg descended close to the ground near Chateau Du N. The pilot had begun to ask his whereabouts when inhabitants recognizing the nationality of the occupants, seized a rope hanging from the basket and refused to allow the balloon to depart until the arrival of the police. The aeronauts stated that they were competitors in the balloon race and were allowed to proceed.

Angers, France, Oct. 13.—Five of the balloons competing in the international race for the James Gordon Bennett cup passed over this city at noon.

Rennes, France, Oct. 13.—Five of the balloons in the race for the James Gordon Bennett cup passed over here this evening. Seven passed over Retiers to the southeast and four to the northeast.

Granville, France, Oct. 13.—Ralph Upson's balloon, representing the United States in the international race, passed over here at 6 o'clock tonight. Granville is at the foot of a promontory projecting in the English Channel.

AIRSHIPS IN LONG RACE.

Winner Makes Sixty Miles in Fifty-two Minutes.

New York, Oct. 13.—In an aeroplane race over a course of approximately 60 miles from the aerodrome at Lockwood Heights, Staten Island, up to, and around Manhattan Island and back to the starting, William S. Luckey, driving a 100 horsepower biplane, today won the first prize of $1,000 offered by the New York Times by completing the routine in 52 minutes, 54 seconds.

A second prize of $750 went to Chas. F. Niles in a similar biplane who covered the court in 54:55. C. Murvin Wood, in an 80-horsepower monoplane won the third money, $500. His time was 58:19. Only two others started, J. Guy Gilpatrick, in a monoplane of 80 horsepower, and Tony Jannus, in a 75 horsepower biplane, finishing as named in 1:08:53 3-4 and 1:13:57, respectively.

The event was held in commemoration of the first flight in a heavier than air machine by the late Wilbur Wright at Kitty Hawk, N. C., ten years ago.

One of the aviators who was to have taken part in the aeroplane race around Manhattan Island today is missing tonight. He is Albert J. Jewell. He left Hempstead Plains at 7:40 this morning for Staten Island, driving a monoplane in which he intended to fly in the race. Since then nothing has been heard from him. Some of the aviators are of the opinion that Jewell was caught in the gale that was blowing and may have been carried out to sea and lost.

Jewell came here from California. He had never done any cross-country flying nor made any trip across water.

AMERICAN LEAGUERS AGAIN.

Baby Majors Win City Championship of Chicago.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—The Chicago Americans made it three in a row from the local Nationals today and won the city championship. The score was 5 to 2.

Scott, vanquished in a duel with Humphries Friday, had ample revenge on his rival in today's game.

Fournier's double in the fourth inning sent the winning runs across the plate. The Sox started a bombardment against Humphries' curves in the fourth, Jimmy Lavender went to the mound in the fifth. He also was greeted with a fusillade of hits.

Today's victory for the American Leaguers brings to a close the seventh meeting of the clubs, the Sox winning four times and the Cubs twice with the first series a tie. The grand total of attendance for the six games this year with the receipts and division of the money is as follows:

Total attendance 153,920; Total receipts $105,815; National Commission's share $10,580; Each club's share, $29,453. Players pool (for first four games) $36,325.

This amount is divided between the winners and losers as follows: American League players, $21,795. National League players $14,530.

OLD CHAMPS MEET.

Wolgast and Nelson, Both Past Masters of Fistic Art, Scrap.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 13.—Al Wolgast, of Cadillac, Mich., defeated Battling Nelson, of Hegeswitch, Ill., in a ten-round no-decision boxing contest here tonight.

Wolgast had the better of eight of the ten rounds while two were even.

The contest was the hardest and fastest ever seen here, both men appearing anxious to put the other out.

Wolgast fought a clean, swift battle and three times had the Dane groggy. He used his left to the chin and right to the face with great force, but the Battler always came back hard. Nelson bored in continually and at times showed flashes of his old-time form, but his blows lacked force.

Both tired toward the end of the contest, but Wolgast was far the fresher at the close. Blood was flowing from the Dane's nose, ear and lips from the hard and sharp blows of the Cadillac boxer.

COLT WINS BIG STAKE.

Kentucky Races Are Bringing Back Love for the Track.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 13.—Don Chenault, the Peter Donna Stella Chenault colt, owned by the estate of H. C. Dickerson, easily won the championship stallion stake, with an estimated value of $8,000, in the Grand Circuit racing here today, outclassing his field. The colt was never in danger.

The Lexington stake for 2-year-old trotters went to Lady Winetka, in straight heats.

The 2:14 trot was won by Red Lace, Jr., after he had lost the first two heats to Bright Axworthy, and the 2:06 pace by Our Colonel, after Jones had been taken out as driver and Murphy substituted. Jones was fined $200 for not trying to win the first heat. The 3-year-old, unfinished, went over until tomorrow.

At Last You Can Get Rid of Blood Troubles —S. S. S.

The word Medicine is one of the most abused in our language. There are certain medicinal properties just as necessary to health as the food we eat. Take, for example, the well-known medicine S. S. S. This famous blood purifier contains medicinal components just as vital and essential to healthy blood as the elements of wheat, roast beef, the fats and the sugars that make up our daily ration.

As a matter of fact, there is one ingredient in S. S. S. which serves the active purpose of stimulating each cellular part of the body to the healthy and judicious selection of its own essential nutriment. That is why it regenerates the blood supply; why it has such a tremendous influence in overcoming Rheumatism, Catarrh of the Stomach and intestines, skin eruptions and all blood troubles.

TO VOLUNTARY IMPRISONMENT

Philadelphia Man Sent Up From Mecklenburg Returns to State Prison —Capt. E. A. Metts Retires —Raleigh News.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 13.—With an infatuated widow and a Philadelphia lawyer working zealously for his pardon, William Graham, alias William Reaves, has just resumed volutnarily the service of a five-year sentence in the North Carolina penitentiary from Mecklenburg county where he had been sentenced for larceny and escaped from the prison three days after he began service of the sentence.

Graham made his way to Philadelphia and has been living a very exemplary life, it is said, having recently made a profession of religion. The thought of being an escaped convict so wrought upon his conscience that he determined to reveal his identity, come back to North Carolina and trust to the tender mercies of the North Carolina authorities to grant him a pardon.

He had fallen in love, too, with a widow in Philadelphia, described as "handsome and wealthy," and she has written Governor Craig a touching letter pleading for pardon for her fiance and declaring her readiness to marry him as soon as he is pardoned and see to it that he continues to lead an exemplary life. Graham arrived here Saturday night and gave himself up to the prison authorities and is now wearing the stripes and doing convict work at the prison.

The Philadelphia lawyer here working for his pardon is Mr. Redheefer and he talks enthusiastically of the high character that Graham established for himself in Philadelphia and the noble self-sacrifice that he has made since his conversion in revealing his identity as a North Carolina escaped convict and coming back to serve the sentence as a sacrifice for his conscience's sake. Mr. Redheefer also hints at a degree of unbalanced mentality as having caused this turn in the conduct of Graham in confessing identity when there was not the least indication that there would ever be any discovery of his secret.

Governor Craig has taken the case under consideration, and in the meantime Graham is doing time in the penitentiary and his sweetheart, the infatuated widow, and the Philadelphia lawyer are bringing every possible influence to bear for obtaining the pardon.

Governor Craig granted a pardon today to Noah Benton, serving a 12 months' sentence in Wilkes county for retailing. The pardon is conditioned on his payment of a fine of $150 and give a $500 bond for good behavior. This action is on recommendation of physicians who give it as their opinion that Benton will die if he is longer imprisoned.

Adjutant General L. W. Young today issued an order designating Lieutenant R. T. Brinn, of Hertford, and Lieutenant Junior Grade George F. Poppendick, of Elizabeth City, as the officers of the North Carolina Naval Brigade, who shall accompany the Atlantic fleet of the United States navy on the cruise of European waters this Fall. The cruise starts October 23rd and is to return by December 15th. The order was made a few weeks ago by Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels for the North Carolina authorities to designate two naval brigade officers to go on the cruise.

Announcement is made at the office of the adjutant general of North Carolina National Guard that Capt. E. A. Metts, of Wilmington, is at his request placed on the retired list with the rank of major. And that Lieutenant Neal Garrison, of Statesville, is also at his request placed on the retired list with the rank of captain.

Commissions are issued to Alton G. Murchison as captain and to R. G. Lamb as lieutenant, Company F, Second Regiment, Fayetteville. Also there are commissions as lieutenant junior grade to W. B. Rodman, Jr., and as ensign to R. W. Small for the sixth division Naval Brigade, Washington, N. C.

Dr. C. A. Shore, director of the State laboratory of hygiene, says that within a week the laboratory will be ready to begin the distribution of typhoid fever vaccine cultivated in the State laboratory. The State law provides that the vaccine shall be furnished to the people at actual cost of production. However, Dr. Shore finds that the cost is so very little that the indications are that the vaccine will be distributed free of charge. This typhoid vaccine has already been successfully used in the United States army and navy and by people in many parts of the country where typhoid is found. Its efficiency is shown to be as great as the smallpox vaccine.

Cumberland Threatened With Suit—Boosters Are Ready.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Fayetteville, N. C., Oct. 13.—Suit for false arrest is being threatened against Cumberland county by Joseph Smith, who was put in jail September 10th as a result of his wife's sudden death, it being alleged that his wife died with symptoms resembling those of strychnine poisoning. The body of Mrs. Smith was exhumed and an autopsy performed, and the stomach and part of the liver were sent to Raleigh for analysis.

The State chemist's analysis showing no signs of strychnine, Smith has been released and it is understood will enter a suit against the county. Smith lives near Linden.

The route of the Fayetteville Boosters, who will leave here the morning of October 15th, has been changed so as to take in several more of the South Carolina towns than the original route included. They will spend a night at Bennettsville. The Boosters will go through 18 towns in North and South Carolina—St. Paul, Lumberton, Fairmont, McDonald, Rowland, N. C.; Dillon, S. C., Little Rock, S. C., Clio, S. C., Bennettsville, S. C., Tatum, S. C., McColl, S. C., Gibson, Laurel Hill, Laurinburg, Maxton, Red Springs, Wagram and Raeford.

Prominent speakers will discuss popular education for better health and better homes for the negro and improvement of their rural schools.

Governor Mann, of Virginia, and Booker T. Washington, the negro educator, are on the programme for speeches. The Virginia State Negro Business Organization Society will hold its annual session in connection with the meeting.

WARSAW FARMER KILLED.

Body Found Beside Road—Arrests Made—Officer Shot.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Goldsboro, N. C., Oct. 13.—Sunday morning between 6 and 7 o'clock, Mr. Cullen Powell, a prominent farmer of Warsaw, was found dead on the county road. By the side of the dead man was found a stick about three feet long, with which it is supposed the man was murdered. He had a scar on his head and cheek which leave evidence that he was dealt a deadly blow from behind, his clothing being saturated with blood.

The object of the murder was doubtless robbery as Mr. Powell left Warsaw with a large sum of money on his person.

As soon as the body was discovered the sheriff and coroner were soon upon the scene and had the body removed to the parlors of the Goldsboro Undertaking Company, where it was viewed by hundreds of people and later prepared for burial and shipped home on the afternoon train to his grief stricken family.

A jury was empanelled Sunday morning, who held their sitting in the court room in the Edgerton building. The trial created a great deal of interest, being packed with spectators throughout the day, anxious to hear the verdict of the jury.

Three suspects were arrested, these being John Stobbs, Lem Pigford and Jim Franklin, all white men. Pigford was released later as there was no evidence to hold him, but the other two are being held until the murder can be more fully investigated by officers.

Sunday night, about 12:30 o'clock, some one shot at Officer Hart, of the local police force, with a shotgun hitting him in the foot, but it is stated that the wound will not necessitate the amputation of same unless blood poison should set in. Officer Hart shot at his assailant several times, but whether any of the bullets hit him is not known. The officer is resting easy at this writing.

DR. STILES AT KINSTON.

Investigating Local Sanitary Conditions—Bond Issue for Institution.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Oct. 13.—Kinston today is honoring a noted visitor, Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Marins Hospital and Public Health Service, discoverer of the hookworm and eminent specialist in sanitation. Dr. Stiles arrived here this morning and will spend the next two days investigating local sanitary conditions. Tomorrow night he will deliver an address in a public place and discuss measures which he considers essential to the improvement of lacal health conditions. Six physicians, the county and city superintendents of schools comprise a committee which is in attendance upon the noted physician. Dr. Stiles came to Kinston in the place of Dr. Carter, who was expected to visit the city early in this month.

Mack Hunnings, 19 years old, nearly lost his life in an accident at North River, and four bullets tore through his left hand when his gun was discharged in a peculiar manner. Young Hunnings had been hunting in a boat, and upon the return was lifting his gun from the bottom of the boat when the hammer struck against a thwart, discharging it. He received immediate medical attention, and will probably save the member.

At a special meeting of the board of aldermen of Kinston, notes given by the city to D. W. Patrick, of Greene county, aggregating $16,977.92 with the interest, were ordered paid. The money was loaned the municipality by Mr. Patrick to pay for the site donated to the State for the location of the school for the feeble minded here. It was necessary to raise the money quickly, and many reliable business men's signatures were on the notes. A bond issue of $17,500 was authorized, and an election held to issue bonds in the sum of all but $500 of that amount. The voters redeemed the pledge of the business men and the public assumed the debt. The bonds were bought by a Chicago brokerage concern for par and accrued interest, and payment made Wednesday. After repaying Patrick, a surplus of about $200 was carried over to the general fund in the city treasury. The deal whereby Cutter, May & Co., of Chicago, purchased the issue was a more fortunate one than has been made by most North Carolina corporations that have sold bonds this year.

COLORED BAPTISTS MEET.

Middle District Association Gathers at Burgaw, N. C.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Burgaw, N. C., Oct. 13.—Notwithstanding much rain and muddy streets, the representatives of about 55 churches constituting the Middle District Baptist Association met by the hundreds in the Mt. Pisgah church here on Thursday at 11 A. M. In the absence of Rev. D. L. Williamson who was on the programme to preach the introductory sermon, this was preached by Rev. W. W. McGuire. The objects of the body are education, home and foreign mission work and temperance, each of which subjects was taken up. The Burgaw Normal and Industrial Institute, the pride of the association, was kept before the association from the beginning to the end of the sessions with much enthusiasm.

About $1,000 was raised by the body, 75 per cent. of which was for the institute.

The temperance sermon was preached by Rev. J. M. Jenkins; the educational sermon by Rev. I. M. Powers, Wallace, N. C.; the doctrinal sermon by Rev. C. T. Underwood; the missionary sermon by Rev. W. H. Moore, D. D., of Wilmington. The visiting divines present were Dr. C. S. Brown, Winston, N. C.; Rev. L. T. Christmas, Raleigh; Rev. G. A. Mial, Raleigh; Rev. Wm. Carver, Fayetteville, and Winnie B. Williams, representing the Charlotte Reform School. The next session of the body will be at Spring Green Baptist church in 1914.

RECEIVER FOR COMPANY.

Auditorium Talks—Fail at Fayetteville—Fire Yesterday.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Fayetteville, N. C., Oct. 13.—On application of a stockholder, Judge C. C. Lyon today named S. H. Buck, receiver of the LaFayette Auditorium Company, of this city, owners of the LaFayette theatre and the city market house, which are in one building. Mr. Buck will continue to operate both the theatre and market, on the same lines as they heretofore have been conducted.

The 15 stockholders of the auditorium company say that they have not been making money, contrary to a general impression, and declare that they were discouraged by what they describe as the unfriendly attitude of the municipal authorities.

A dwelling house owned by Mr. Jerry Johnson, of Richmond, Va., and occupied by a Mr. Scanlon, was destroyed by fire about noon today. Practically all Mr. Scanlon's household egects were consumed, with no insurance.

ORGANIZE COTTON STORAGE.

Wilson County Farmers—Other News Notes of Interest.

Wilson, N. C., Oct. 13.—With a large number of representative farmers in attendance a meeting was held in the Court House Saturday afternoon for the purpose of organizing the Wilson County Cotton Storage Warehouse Association. Promoters had already secured the charter and the capital stock of the enterprise which is almost altogether being backed by farmers is $50,000 and the shares are $10 each. The directors as selected are: B. E. Woward, L. E. Robbins, J. C. Eagles, W. J. Davis, J. E. Farmer, E. C. Capps and D. R. Petway. The directors will meet later and elect the officers. Considerable discussion was given the question of dividends and division of the surplus but both of these matters were left open.

The surprise of the day came when Mr. Walter Woodard, chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, announced that he was planning to carry out the expressed wishes of Governor Craig to call for workers on the county roads two days in November in accordance with the Governor's proclamation. Mr. Woodard introduced a resolution of endorsement and the resolution was defeated with only two affirmative votes. The farmers present were practically unanimously opposed to the proposition.

What steps the county will take now in the matter is to be discovered. County Superintendent of Schools Charles L. Coon has already called on the school children of the county to turn out on those two days and many good road enthusiasts are expressing themselves as surprised at the action of the Saturday gathering, composed as it was of representative farmers and citizens.

Rev. Richard Bagby returned Saturday from Toronto, Canada, where he attended the International Convention of Christian Churches. He reports large interest in the work of the denomination and at the Sunday morning service in the Wilson Christian church gave a detailed report of the sessions. More than 3,000 delegates were in attendance at the Toronto meeting.

Chief of Police Wiggs was a cause of considerable uneasiness circus day and closed up a number of objectionable side shows on the circus grounds. One of the bystanders remarked, when one of the circus people complained, "Wiggs would pull his grandmother, if she was violating the law."

Justice of the Peace Barnes had a peculiar case before him Saturday evening. Two young women living in the Saratoga neighborhood appeared as prosecuting witnesses and charged five gentlemen of Farmville with attempted assault. The evidence was that the gentlemen were en route to Wilson in an automobile and after passing the young women on the road they stopped their car and two of the men alighted. The women testified that the men beckoned to them. The men, on the other hand, testified that they got out of the car to look after some part of the machinery. From the further evidence it appeared that the car was at least 50 feet from the the women, then the car stopped and the men did not go toward the women. Justice Barnes decided that the sight of the automobile frightened the women and dismissed the case.

Miss Eliza Carr, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Carr, was hostess to a large number of friends Saturday afternoon and evening in honor of her birthday. Dainty refreshments were served.

County Superintendent of Schools C. L. Coon has issued formal notice of the compulsory school law and urges the compliance with the law on the part of the people of the county.

OVERCOME BY GAS FUMES.

Remains of Young Robert Claxton to Tarboro for Burial.

Tarboro, N. C., Oct. 13.—Overcome with gasoline fumes while on the power launch Rosalie on which he and his parents and other relatives were on an outing on the Potomac river, Robert Edward Claxton, 12-year-old son of Philander P. Claxton, United States Commissioner of Education, died at a Washington, D. C. hospital Sunday night without regaining consciousness. The lad's condition was discovered when the launch was a short distance below the city headed toward Washington and he was placed in an automobile and rushed to the hospital. The funeral cortege left Washington today en route to Tarboro. The funeral services will be held here at the St. James' Methodist church tomorrow afternoon.

The Quickest, Simplest Cough Remedy

Easily and Cheaply Made at Home. Saves You $2.

This plan makes a pint of cough syrup—enough to last a family a long time. You couldn't buy as much or as good cough syrup for $2.50.

Simple as it is, it gives almost instant relief and usually conquers an ordinary cough in 24 hours. This is partly due to the fact that it is slightly laxative, stimulates the appetite and has an excellent tonic effect. It is pleasant to take—children like it. An excellent remedy, too, for whooping cough, spasmodic croup and bronchial asthma.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with ½ pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2½ ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and add the Sugar Syrup. It keeps perfectly. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

Pine is one of the oldest and best known remedial agents for the throat membranes. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in guaiacol and other natural healing elements. Other preparations will not work in this combination.

The prompt results from this mixture have endeared it to thousands of housewives in the United States and Canada, which explains why the plan has been imitated often, but never successfully.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

PILES are curable. All kinds mean suffering and danger. The CAUSE is always internal. Dr. Leonhardt's HEM-ROID tablets produce amazing results by attacking the INTERNAL CAUSE. The piles are dried up and permanently cured. 24 days' treatment, $1.00. DR. LEONHARDT CO., Buffalo, N. Y. (Free boo

They do say the way the fish are biting at Wrightsville Beach, it's a measely shame to drag them out of the water.

One of the things to refuse to worry about is the report that Great Britain is going to build a 300-mile sea level canal through Colombia, to compete with the Panama canal.

A novelist fears that hatred is going to be the result of what he calls the "unrest of women." We haven't the slightest fear so long as most any man can manage to buy a diamond ring, a box of confectioneries, or a box of flowers.

For a man who has troubles, Governor Sulzer is very much of an optimist. "I never felt better in my life," says the Governor, but it really may be trying to keep a stiff upper lip during the closest shove he ever had in his life.

Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst is on the way. She may not find the royal welcome awaiting her in the "land of the free" that she expected, thanks to our very decided views in this country on "undesirable citizens."

If the rain had kept up down here in Eastern Carolina a week longer many of the interior points would ere this have been clamoring before the Legislature for deep water rates. And they would have been entitled to them, too.

As usual the Legislature took up considerable time at the close of its session for voting gratuities to the various employes of both Houses—a practice that should be discarded. The silver sets and the perfervid oratory of presentation also had its place in the final hours of the General Assembly.

Now they are predicting a severe winter because there was a heavy crop of mast, squirrels are building their nests early, animals are putting on a heavy coat of fur, and chickens are feathering themselves with a heavy dress of feathers. Isn't it a fact, however, that the sure sign that Wilmington is coming is the signifying whether it will be a mild Winter or an extraordinarily severe one?

THAT RATE BASING PORT.

Referring to an editorial in the Star commenting upon a paragraph in the Greensboro News which rather rejoiced at the idea that Wilmington had been "stepped on" by the balance of the State in the settlement of the freight rate fight, our esteemed Greensboro contemporary of Saturday contains an editorial which we hope does not breathe the prevailing sentiment at Greensboro, for we regret to note that it is neither friendly nor sympathetic in tone, so far as Wilmington is concerned.

The News puts us in the attitude of "calling it to task" for intimating that "the rest of he State might have been justified in stepping on Wilmington." We are also made to appear "surprised" that The News was willing to admit that Wilmington had been stepped on, and by way of reply, that valued paper, in endeavoring to justify its remark about stepping on Wilmington, goes on to say:

"But we confess that we cannot see how it could be denied. Wilmington made a tremendous effort—an effort accompanied by words that would better have been left unsaid—to keep the rate fight going until that port should have been recognized as a rate basing point, but the rest of the State flatly refused to fight any longer. If that was not stepping on Wilmington's aspirations we miss our guess. As to the justification, it may be cruel, but it is true, that Greensboro, for instance, would just as seen be discriminated against in favor of Lynchburg as in favor of Wilmington. The discrimination is what rankles, and the matter of what point is favored is entirely incidental; as it happened, all the rest of North Carolina was in Greensboro's boat, but that fact mattered not at all except that it added outraged State pride to the resentment of the business men and combined the forces that were fighting for just rates."

The News seems to be arguing a point that The Star never made, and defending a proposition that we never disputed. We never denied that Wilmington was "stepped on," for that was too manifest for any denial at all from this neck of the woods. Without denying that Wilmington was "stepped on," with a vengeance at that, The Star's article did not aim to call The News to task, but to gently reproach it for appearing to justify the manner in which Wilmington had been deserted by the balance of the State, or "stepped on," as The News would have it. No we don't deny it, for it is too plain to deny, but the worst of it is we hate to note that The News does not even regret that Wilmington was "stepped on," else that contemporary would not go on to say this:

"We would like to have a rate basing point at Wilmington if that were any guarantee that rates to Greensboro would be lowered thereby. But if the establishment of such a point would mean that we would have to pay on goods from Cincinnati, for instance, the rate to Wilmington plus the rate back to Greensboro from Wilmington, we fail to see where anybody would benefit but Wilmington.

"Again, it is at least doubtful whether the fight for a rate basing port at Wilmington would have been victorious, and we, for one, regard it as very doubtful. On the other hand, we are certain of what we have acquired. Shall we stake all that we have in hand on a fight in which victory in dubious, and, even if won, would be of purely theoretical advantage? We, for one, say not.

"The Daily News makes this statement of its position for the benefit of its contemporary, who, in spite of its ardent support of the Wilmington theory, has kept its head and its temper, and therefore, even although wrong, still commands respect. With those citizens of Wilmington who have taken advantage of the situation to cast aspersions on the motives of men whose records of public service are at least as good as their own, this paper has no patience, and it has no intention of wasting more words on them."

We would hate to see Greensboro discriminated against in favor of Wilmington, but we can say that we would rather see Wilmington discriminated against in favor of Greensboro than in favor of Lynchburg or any other Virginia city that has had so much the greater advantage of Greensboro during the rank discrimination that has been practiced against that North Carolina city. We don't believe Greensboro "would as soon be discriminated against in favor of Lynchburg as in favor of Wilmington." That would make Greensboro a city out of sympathy and touch with the spirit that ought to animate the whole State of North Carolina. Down in this purely North Carolina region we would rather see discrimination in favor of Greensboro than in favor of Lynchburg or Norfolk, and we resent as wholly unjustifiable the rank discrimination against Greensboro.

However, what on earth has the question of discrimination in favor of Wilmington against Greensboro got to do with this subject from any angle that it may be considered? Nothing, whatsoever. Doing justice by Wilmington certainly would not be discriminating against Greensboro, any more than doing justice by Charlotte would discriminate against Greensboro. In the first place, to make Wilmington a rate basing point would not mean any discrimination against Greensboro. On the contrary, it would mean Greensboro's salvation, and if Greensboro is laboring under any other delusion it is because it has never known what it is to be one of a group of junction points that are beneficiaries of rates based on ocean transportation. Why, Lynchburg certainly appreciates what it is to be the beneficiary of the rate basing port of Norfolk. Fancy the fortunate, enlightened city of Lynchburg opposing a rate basing port at Norfolk on the ground that it would discriminate against Lynchburg. On the contrary, Lynchburg knows better, and the proposition would be so absurd that Lynchburg wouldn't even want to be suspected of not knowing any better.

The News is entirely mistaken about there being anything wrong with the what it calls "the Wilmington theory." There isn't any theory about it at all, for in the language of the illustrious Grover Cleveland "it is a condition we face"—freight rate discrimination worse than even Greensboro has kicked against. Wilmington is more interested in securing just freight rates than she is in being made a rate basing point. That is what an intelligent State ought to fight for, for it more concerns the State to have a rate basing port than it does the port itself. We are astonished that North Carolina doesn't see it, but she will see it some day, for she certainly ought not to be 25 years behind Virginia in seeing the advantage of a rate basing port. We hate to think that the portion of North Carolina that has "stepped on" Wilmington has done so because it "didn't know it was loaded."

VICTORY ALMOST COMPLETE.

President Fred N. Tate, of the North Carolina Just Freight Rate Association, has been in Raleigh during the session of the General Assembly to do all in his power to secure the demands of the people for relief from freight rate discrimination. Mr. Tate has been thoroughly in earnest, and, in fact, has been so zealous in his contentions that he has not been altogether tolerable of the other fellow's views. Much of what has been accomplished is due to his efforts and the tremendous public sentiment against the outrageous discrimination that has been practiced against North Carolina.

Before President Tate left Raleigh for his home at High Point, he was interviewed by the Raleigh News and Observer as to the result obtained in the fight for justice at the hands of the railroads and as to what the reasonable prospects for relief now are. Mr. Tate said it would be utterly impossible for him to express what he believed the result finally will be, but with the concessions made by the railroads as to inter-State rates and with Mr. Justice's act to control or regulate intra-State rates, he is rather inclined to believe that the fight is "almost a complete victory." Says President Tate:

"First of all, and while the thought is uppermost in my mind, I desire to express sincere thanks to the General Assembly for its uniform kindness and the courtsies extended to me. While I know our campaign and our argument for what we believed and still believe to be right, did not meet with favor at the hands of some of the members, still these, with only a few exceptions, accorded our people a reputable and considerable hearing.

"It is gratifying in the extreme to be able to say tonight that the large majority of those who, from lack of knowledge of the true situation, earlier in the week were unfavorable to our bills covering the needed reforms, are now convinced that our demands for adequate relief were based on actual conditions as they exist.

"The measures finally passed today have brought to our people great relief and mean an almost complete victory over railroad influences and domination, for which our association will doubtless be truly thankful, and too much praise cannot be given the great strong leaders in the General Assembly for their untiring and faithful efforts in behalf of the people.

"Now as to what has actually been accomplished, and the anticipated results. The Justice intra-State freight rate bill with the Senate amendment ratified today, provides for such uniform and fair reduction in local rates in North Carolina as to enable our people to now build up an intra-State business heretofore prohibited under the existing high rates. The commission to be appointed by the Governor to pass upon these rates and act in the capacity of a tribunal to which the railroads may come, should, and doubtless will, preclude the possibility of long and tiresome law suits, and will enable the State to make the new rates effective within a very short time.

"This bill, in connection with the reduced inter-State rates already agreed to by the carriers and accepted by the Legislature, will in a measure bring the relief demanded, and is certainly the beginning of greater development for every section of North Carolina.

"The appropriation wisely made today for the employment of a real rate expert, under the direction and by the approval of the Governor, to serve the Corporation Commission, will bring to our people another great benefit, and puts aside any further excuse of over-work or lack of facilities in that office. Let me say, in this connection, that what the people want and demand at the hands of the Corporation Commission, is service; service that will get results and that will protect the farming and business interests of the State in a far greater measure than ever in the past. I think the handwriting has been made plainly visible, and a vast improvement in this respect may be confidently expected."

It remains to be seen what the extent of the concessions by the railroads will foot up. It certainly means a measure of relief for some portions of the State, despite the fact that Wilmington is left out in the cold. So far as the compromise with the railroads is concerned, it is only a partial victory, for the terms are those of the railroads and not those of the State. It is even a doubtful victory at best, since the State had to consent for its water points to be throttled in order to get a concession in the interior.

It may be different as to intra-State rates, but it remains yet to test the efficacy of Mr. Justice's bill to govern rates inside the State.

Mr. Justice's bill aims at a vital spot in the armor of the carriers but whether it will hit the spot is a question for the future. The railroads probably thought the General Assembly would adjourn after ratifying the railroad compromise, but it seems that the Legislature has gone a step further than they expected. However, it is too early to even boast of a partial victory till the whole State is relieved from domination by the railroads.

CAN NEVER BE JUSTIFIED.

All our esteemed North Carolina contemporaries know better than to believe that North Carolina can be justified in any particular in making a pact with a combination of railroads to keep its water points bottled up, even at the risk of getting a rate bargain for the interior. It is useless for any paper in North Carolina to take any such unreasonable and untenable position, for it couldn't sustain it with all the preachments that could be made from now till doomsday.

We are willing to lay a wager that North Carolina is the only State in the Union that would permit and take a part in bottling up their port. North Carolina will reverse herself on that unjustifiable position when she catches up with Virginia in seeing and recognizing the importance of a rate basing port. Virginia certainly has reason to know it, and she has known it for a querter of a century.

CURRENT COMMENT.

A confession from certain Democrats who hoped Woodrow Wilson wouldn't do anything would make interesting reading.—Petersburg Index-Appeal.

Wilmington scores another one over its rival, Charleston, when the Wilmington Star points out that the discovery of 400 blind tigers in the South Carolina port denotes only about 30,000 population.—Newbern Sun.

Wilmington is planning a new line of freight steamers from that port to New York City. It is proposed to begin with a steamer a week from New York to Wilmington and put on more, if the business will justify it. That looks like Wilmington is about to realize her strategic position and find a way to handle her own freight rate problems.—Kinston Free Press.

The Wake County Farmers' Union has secured an excellent location in Raleigh for its warehouse. It will make this city the center of distribution to its growing membership, which is now one thousand. The union is not in politics and its influential members say it will never take the step which was so fatal to its predecessor, the Farmers' Alliance, an organization which had immense possibilities for good along many lines. The farmers' union in this State has something like sixty thousand members and it is growing rapidly. One of its purposes in establishing warehouses is to even up matters by helping in the handling of home-grown products so that prices may be better equalized. Here in Wake we are paying sixty-five to seventy-five cents for a grown hen, and in less than two hundred miles distance the same bird can be bought at from ten to fifteen cents. Of course, the warehouses in the various counties will carry supplies for the use of the members. Later there will be a large storage warehouse here. The one now leased is especially for the business done by the county business agent.—Raleigh Times.

WOMAN BURNED TO DEATH.

Sad Tragedy at Clinton—Mr. Hobbs Paralyzed—Daughter Fought.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Clinton, N. C., Oct. 13.—Mr. Matt J. Hobbs, a former well known citizen of Clinton, who has for some time been living at Center Hill, Fla., arrived here Saturday night on a visit to relatives and suffered a stroke of paralysis soon after reaching town. His right side is affected. Today he is some better and expects to return home this week. His recovery is hoped for.

Mrs. A. R. Bizzell suffered a most distressing accident at her home on DeVane street yesterday afternoon. She was subject to attacks of epilepsy, and one coming on without warning, she fell into an open fire place and was horribly burned before her husband, who was in another room, could reach her. Her hair was burned off, and all the upper part of her body blistered. She lingered until early this morning when death ended her sufferings. Mr. Bizzell had both his hands severely burned in attempting to save his wife. The funeral was conducted this afternoon from the family residence, and the interment was in Clinton cemetery. Mrs. Bizzell was a daughter of the late Henry Matthis, of this county, and, besides her devoted husband, leaves several brothers and sisters. She was a most estimable and amiable woman and was much loved by her neighbors and friends who are shocked and grieved beyond expression at the tragic ending of her life.

Shepard Stevens, a well known colored farmer living near town, had a misunderstanding yesterday afternoon with a grown daughter, who assaulted him with an axe, inflicting serious injuries, necessitating the attention of a surgeon. The cause of the domestic disturbance is unknown.

NEW WHITE HOUSE FLOWER.

Will Decorate With it at November Wedding, and Name it for Bride.

Washington, Oct. 13.—From thousands of crysanthemums being grown in the White House conservatories and in the green houses at the Department of Agriculture for the approaching White House wedding, one aristotle of that plant family—an entirely new creation, now being developed—is to be named after the bride Miss Jessie Wilson.

All the government's crack horticulturists who are giving the stranger their attention are mum as to its color size or variety, but they promise it will take first place among the thousands of its kind which will decorate the White House rooms on November 25th.

Washington, Oct. 13.—The Supreme Court convened today for its Fall term, adjourned and paid its customary visit to President Wilson, at the White House. Tomorrow motions will be received, and next Monday will be the first decision day.

CHRONIC COLDS.

Are Contracted by Changeable Weather—A Simple Remedy.

Sudden changes are particularly trying for old people or those who suffer from a weakened, run-down condition, chronic coughs, colds or bronchitis, but if such persons would only apply common sense methods in the treatment of their condition, much discomfort and suffering might be avoided.

The most essential thing to do is to build up strength, enrich the blood, increase vital resistance and to accomplish this nothing equals Vinol, our cod liver and iron tonic.

Mrs. M. J. Grimes, of Springfield, Ohio, says: "I was badly run-down, nervous and weak, and while in this condition I contracted a heavy cold and rheumatism. Vinol was recommended and I am happy to say it cured my cold and restored me to health again."

Old people, delicate children, run-down, overworked and tired women, those suffering from bronchitis, chronic coughs and colds should try a bottle of Vinol. We will return your money if it does not help you. Robt. R. Bellamy, Druggist, Wilmington, N. C.

WILL INCREASE STOCK.

Hamburg-American Line Will Add Over Seven Million.

Hamburg, Oct. 13.—Directors of the Hamburg-American Line announced today they proposed to increase the capital of the company by $7,500,000.

The proposal which is to be submitted at a special stockholders' meeting is declared to be due to the necessity of largely increasing the company's fleet of freight-carrying vessels in view of the opening of the Panama canal and for the establishment of a new Oriental service.

ELECT COMMITTEEMEN.

John T. Barnett Fills That Place from Colorado.

Denver, Col., Oct. 13.—John T. Barnett, former attorney general af Colorado, today was elected Democratic National committeeman from Colorado to succeed the late Thomas J. McCune, defeating Thomas Tynan.

Barnett was backed by the State administration, while Tynan had the support of Senators Shafroth and Thomas.

Bad Complexions Are Now Easily Discarded

(From the Beauty Seeker.)

Every woman has it in her own hands to possess a beautiful and youthful complexion. No matter how soiled, faded or coarse the cuticule, ordinary mercolized wax will actually remove it, and Nature will substitute a skin as soft, clear and lovely as a child's. The action of the wax is not drastic, but gentle and agreeable. Minute particles of scarf skin come off day by day, yet no evidence of the treatment is discernible, other than the gradual complexional improvement. One ounce of mercolized wax, procurable at any drug-store, suffices for most cases. It is put on at bedtime like cold cream, and taken off in the morning with warm water. It is a certain method of discarding freckles, liver spots, moth patches, blackheads and pimples.

Wrinkles can be treated with benefit by bathing the face in a lotion prepared by dissolving 1 ounce powdered saxolite in ½ pint witch hazel. Instantaneous results are secured.

THOUSANDS SEE CIRCUS

Howe's Great London Shows Exhibited Here Yesterday—Tent Filled at Both Performances—Big Parade.

For the first time in some half dozen years the people of Wilmington and surrounding country yesterday had an opportunity of seeing a really first-class circus when Howe's Great London Shows gave two performances in this city. In the afternoon the enormous tent was taxed to its capacity, the crowd being estimated at between eight and ten thousand, and even then it was necessary to stop selling tickets a few minutes before 2 o'clock.

Not only was every seat in the tent filled, but the attendants had trouble keeping the crowds back from the rings, the ground being covered with hundreds who had to sit in any place that did not interfere with the performers.

The circus was on the large vacant lot at Fourth and Castle streets and the tent extended from Third street to Fourth. Howe's is a new show for this immediate section of the country and the tremendous crowd was agreeably surprised at both the size of the show and its high class programme.

Yesterday morning the parade left the grounds promptly at 10 o'clock, and the line of march up Fourth street to Red Cross and thence down Front street, was almost one continuous throng of people, the largest crowd, of course, being on Front street, where both sidewalks were literally packed. It was a most creditable parade, and comments on the neat appearance of the performers and attendants and the high class of stock were heard on all sides.

One of the noticeable features of the Howe's show was the great number of black horses, and all handsome animals. They were particularly noticeable in the street parade, for all of the hourses used by the women and men riders were black, and about the same size and shape. They looked more like a fine lot of special selected cavalry and race horses than circus animals.

The Howe show is the oldest and largest of the independent circus organizations now on tour. The shows were organized in London, England, by the late Seth L. Howe, in 1869, and after successfully touring England, France and Germany, were brought to this country. At the time the Howe's London shows came to America, Barnum and Bailey practically held a monopoly of the circus field, but were at that time a small, one-ring affair.

In the big show there was something doing all the time, one feature act following another in quick succession. The equestrian acts under the supervision of Director L. M. Dockrill form one of the most enjoyable features of the performance.

Perhaps the prettiest act in the entire show is the Society Equestrian feature which is so well put on by Mr. Herman Griggs and Miss Blanch Reid, while other attractive numbers were the cake-walking horses and the English riding act.

The leading thriller of the programme is the iron-jawed act put on by the Vivian Sisters in mid air. This act is better than most of the high-priced feature acts which are seen at exhibitions and fairs. Another one of the big features of the show is the Ueno Japanese troupe, who eclipsed anything in this line ever seen here, while there are countless other aerial tumbling, wire walking and such acts, which are accessory to make up a circus performance, including a remarkable performing herd of trained elephants.

One of the features of the menagerie—and is just now its latest feature—is a baby lion, about six weeks old, and it is just as cute as cute can be, beside its ferocious forebears, and attracts all attention.

With its horses and other live stock among the finest in the circus business and the performance admittedly one of the most clean-cut aggregations ever seen under a circus tent in Wilmington, there was something about Howe's Great London Shows which made everybody enjoy themselves.

Another feature, which was often remarked upon, was the courteous treatment extended to all patrons by the entire staff.

The circus will go into Winter quarters at Montgomery, Ala., the latter part of November and will start the season next Spring by giving the opening performance in April in Montgomery. It is the present plan of the managers to reach Wilmington on the trip North in the Spring.

Mr. Will Mitchell, the clever press agent for the shows, has been in Wilmington several times, twice with a circus. His first trip was six years ago when he came with the Cole Bros. circus. He likes Wilmington, but would not like to spend the Winter here as the climate is too mild and snows are too few. He is a Canadian and soon after the circus goes into Winter quarters he will "hike" it to Canada for the season.

HOSPITAL COMMITTEE MEETING.

Wilmington Member Will Attend—Affairs in Splendid Shape.

Mr. A. B. Croom, Jr., will leave this morning for Raleigh to attend a meeting of the executive committee of the State Hospital at Raleigh, which will be held in Raleigh tomorrow. The other members of the committee are Mr. Joseph G. Brown, of Raleigh, and Dr. C. A. Woodward, of Durham. The hospital is in splendid shape, and the superintendent, Dr. Albert Anderson, with his able corps of assistants, have made several improvements recently.

This worthy institution for the unfortunate has about 900 patients. With very little cost to the State the inmates have this year succeeded in making a large crop on the farm. The grounds, park and farm embrace nearly 400 acres of valuable land, all of which is owned by the State.

FUNERAL OF MR. TAYLOR.

Services from Residence Sunday Morning—Interment in Oakdale.

The funeral of Mr. John Taylor, whose death occurred Thursday night, was held Sunday morning at 11 o'clock from the family residence, No. 201 Church street, conducted by Rev. Dr. S. Mendelssohn, Rabbi of the Temple of Israel. The impressive services were attended by many friends who had known him during his long business career of 30 years in Wilmington. The floral offerings were profuse, and bore silent testimony to the high esteem in which he was held among his friends and neighbors. Interment was in Oakdale cemetery. The pallbearers were as follows: Honorary, Messrs. J. Weil, S. Solomon and S. P. Collier; active, Messrs. Marshall Shrier, Louis [illegible], Gus Danenbaum, M. W. Ja[illegible] I. Solomon.

MASONIC REUNION BEGINS

Forty-one Candidates Taking the Degrees That Lead to Scottish Rite—Prominent Visiting Masons.

With a number of prominent visitors present and assisting in the work and with a large attendance of local members, the Fall reunion of the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, Valley of Wilmington, Orient of North Carolina, began in the Masonic Temple yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock when degrees from the fourth to the 13th, both inclusive, were conferred on 41 candidates by Johnson Blakely Lodge of Perfection No. 5. The 14th degree is also given by the Lodge of Perfection and will be conferred on the class this morning from 10 to 12 o'clock.

The other degrees up to and including the 32nd will be conferred on different days by different branches of the fraternity, the reunion continuing through Friday.

The reunion began at 2 o'clock yesterday when Venerable Master C. B. Newcomb, of Johnson Blakely Lodge, called the gathering to order. After the opening ceremonies, the conferring of the degrees was entered upon. The fourth degree was conferred by Mr. J. E. Burriss; the fifth by Mr. G. C. McIntire; the sixth, seventh and eighth by Walter S. Liddell, of Charlotte, 33rd degree Honorary; ninth by C. B. Newcomb; tenth, eleventh, twelfth and thirteenth by David P. Byers, of Charlotte, 32nd K. C. C. H.

The reunion is evry fortunate in having in attendance several prominent visitors who are thoroughly familiar with the work and are rendering most valuable assistance in the initiation of candidates. The visitors who are active in the initiation work are Mr. Walter S. Liddell, 33rd degree Honorary; Mr. David P. Byers, 32nd, K. C. C. H., and Mr. F. M. Winchester, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge, A. F. & A. M., of North Carolina, all of Charlotte, representing Consistory No. 1 of that city. Representatives are present also from Galveston, Buffalo and Mobile. The local Masons are very much gratified that they have the presence and most valuable aid of the distinguished Charlote Masons. They are all pioneers in the work and very efficient in conferring the degrees. Much praise is also given to the local Masons who have taken part in the initiatory work.

A distinct and pleasing feature of the sessions yesterday was the musical programme, which was given by the Scottish Rite choir, composed of Miss Carrie Bowen, soprano; Mrs. James D. Smith, contralto; Mr. Greene Fenley, tenor; Mr. Herbert K. Holden, bass; Mr. Alfred H. Yopp, organist.

Cape Fear Chapter Rose Croix No. 3, convenes at 3 o'clock this afternoon and degrees from the 15th to the 18th, both inclusive, will be conferred. This work will be in charge of Mr. S. R. Keyes, of this city. The choir will give another very pleasing programme.

Mr. L. A. Scott is the general secretary and to him is due in no small way the success the reunion has scored thus far.

BISHOP STRANGE ILL.

Well Known Prelate Became Sick in New York a Few Days Ago.

Friends in this city and throughout the eastern part of the State will regret to learn that Rt. Rev. Robert Strange, Bishop of the Diocese of East Carolina, became ill in New York City a few days ago while in attendance upon the General Convention of Episcopal Church and messages from St. Luke's Hospital, where he is undergoing treatment, are to the effect that he will likely have to remain in the hospital for two or three weeks and will probably not be able to return to his duties in a much longer period. It was stated that he was threatened with a stroke of paralysis, but it was thought that it could be warded off. Bishop Strange has been bishop for the past nine years and is greatly beloved throughout the diocese.

Bishop Strange first noticed a numbness in his hand and side and he lost the use of his hand. Specialists were consulted and his system responded well to the treatment. Mrs. Strange is with him. While his condition is serious, relatives and friends have every assurance that he will recover, and friends throughout this State and other States will devoutly hope that it will be speedy.

INSPECT NEW STATION.

Hundreds Visited the Coast Line's New Building Sunday.

Hundreds of persons who did not have the opportunity during the week, either for lack of time or on account of the bad weather, Sunday visited and inspected the handsome new union station erected by the Atlantic Coast Line at Front and Red Cross streets. All agreed that Wilmington now has one of the handsomest and most conveniently arranged stations of any town its size in the entire country. Many could not help but contrast the old with the new and some fell to wondering how Wilmington ever got along for so many years with the old, dingy building that served as a station. The new station was visited Sunday by men, women and children and they came from morning until late in the afternoon.

Death of Mrs. Kennedy Roderick.

Mrs. Kennedy Roderick, wife of the late Emanuel Roderick, died suddenly yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. S. A. Lindquist, where she had been staying for some time. She leaves one daughter, Mrs. S. W. Northrop, of Southport. The funeral arrangements will not be made until Mrs. Northrop's arrival this morning.

MRS. CLAYTON GILES DEAD

Passed Away in New York Saturday Night—Body Reached Wilmington Yesterday—Funeral This Morning.

It was a severe shock to relatives and friends Sunday when they received telegrams bringing the sad news of the sudden death of Mrs. Clayton Giles, Sr., in New York City, late Saturday night. With her husband and daughter, Miss Lucile Murchison, she was attending the Episcopal convention now in session in the metropolis.

Accompanied by Mr. Giles, Miss Murchison, Rev. Dr. W. H. Milton and other friends the body arrived in Wilmington yesterday morning in a special car. It was carried to the family home at No. 305 South Third street, where the funeral will take place this morning at 11 o'clock, conducted by Dr. W. H. Milton, rector of St. James' Episcopal church. The interment will be in Oakdale cemetery.

Surviving her besides her husband and daughter are two sisters, Mrs. D. C. Waddell, of Greensboro, and Mrs. Frank Young, of Wilmington, and two brothers, Messrs. T. H. Wright, of Portsmouth, Va., and C. Bruce Wright, of Raleigh.

She was a daughter of the late Joshua G. Wright, a well known lawyer of this city, and was a member of one of North Carolina's most distinguished families. She was first married to the late David R. Murchison, and to this union there was born one child, Miss Lucile Murchison. After a period of widowhood she was married to Mr. Clayton Giles.

She was a woman of many admirable traits of character, and exercised a profound influence for good upon the hundreds of friends who learned to know and to love her. She was an earnest worker in the church of her choice, and delighted in well doing. She will be sadly missed.

The following sketch was prepared by Rev. Dr. Milton and gives a splendid portrayal of her life and character:

"Entered into life eternal, at New York City, Sunday morning, October 12th, Lucy Wright, beloved wife of Clayton Giles and mother of Miss Lucile W. Murchison, of Wilmington.

"Mrs. Giles was the daughter of Joshua G. Wright and Mary McNeil Walker, and grand-daughter of Judge Joshua G. Wright, of the Superior Court of North Carolina, and Susan Bradley, and was related as well to most of the distinguished lines in church and civic life of her native State. She was possessed of singular sweetness and winsomeness of disposition, which won for her the love and esteem of all who came in contact with her in every walk of life.

"She was endowed with a rare capacity for the enjoyment of life, coupled with a child-like enthusiasm for the simplest pleasures which, in spite of an enforced retirement from the more active interests due to the physical malady which afflicted her and at last caused her death, enabled her to find for herself and make for others a joy in living to the very end of life, such as is experienced by few even of those who are unhampered by limitations of health and activity. Chief among her characteristics was her unwavering loyalty to her friends, her church and her State. And neither circumstance nor condition determined the personnel of her circle of friends, nor altered her affection for them when once she had admitted them to that circle.

"Of an intensely religious temperament by nature, she further cultivated that temperament by a devoted attendance upon the services of her church so far as her strength would permit, by a studied interest in the sources of religious inspiration in her hours of retirement, and by a simple and unostentatious ministry to the needs of others wherever opportunity and her means allowed.

"While for those of her own State, who had brought honor to their State by their successes, she had an appreciative enthusiasm which amounted to a gratitude equal to that which she might have felt if the honor had been conferred upon herself. Only those who knew her best can appreciate how far this supreme trait of all character—loyalty—moulded and adorned her personality and character.

"If to love is to live well, surely she needs no other epitaph than the lines of Coleridge:

He prayeth well who loveth well
Both man and bird and beast.
He prayeth best who loveth best
All things both great and small.
For the dear God who loveth us,
He loved and made us all."

POSTOFFICE IMPROVEMENTS.

Complete Overhauling of Lobby—Improvements at Marine Hospital.

Capt. John H. Devereaux, inspector of buildings for the government, is spending some time in the city, superintending extensive improvements which are being made at the postoffice and at the Marine Hospital. New marble tiling will be placed in the post office lobby and the screens will be reburnished and finished up in imitation mahogany style. An effort is being made with good prospects of success to have revolving doors which will make the temperature in the lobby constant under all weather conditions.

The Marine Hospital is being entirely overhauled and everything is being put into order. The authority has been given to fit it up as a research station for the entire South. In the hands of Dr. Stiles this will be one of the important points of the country.

Capt. Deveraux is preparing plans which will permit the fumigation of the largest vessels that enter this port at Southport. He is acting in the matter under the advice of Major Stickle, engineer in charge of this district.

Police Took Precautions.

Having received reports from several cities in the State where Howe's shows had exhibitted that there was a gang following the circus making a specialty of robbing houses while the occupants were attending the performance, Chief Williams yesterday took precautions to see that if such antics were resorted to here that the perpetrators would find themselves in the hands of the law. He had an officer on the police motorcycle to patrol the residence sections while the show was on, and also had the regular force thoroughly patrol all sections. No trouble of any kind was reported to the department, and the best of order was kept throughout the day.

Jury Takes Recess Until Today.

The coroner's jury, impanneled by Coroner John J. Fowler for the purpose of investigating the death of Georgia Barr from an alleged criminal operation, held a short session yesterday afternoon, and examined two witnesses, these being the mother of the girl and Dr. William Harper, a colored physician. No new facts were brought out. A recess was taken until this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock when the jury will meet again.

HOLIDAY FOR CORN SHOW

County Board of Education Gives Rural School Children Day Off November 12th—Large Enrollment.

Rural school children of the county will be given an opportunity to attend the Corn Show to be held in this city November 12th in connection with the Fine Arts and Industrial Exhibit of North Carolina Sorosis, the County Board of Education in regular monthly session yesterday afternoon having voted to allow the children a holiday on this date. It is planned to have some exercises in connection with the Corn Show and prominent speakers will make addresses on agricultural topics.

The Corn Show and exercises incident thereto will really be educational and this fact was readily recognized by members of the Board of Education. From reports received by Mr. J. P. Herring, the county farm demonstrator, there will be a large attendance of the school children from the rural districts. City school children will also attend in large numbers, but it will not be necessary for them to observe holiday in order to be able to attend as they get out about 2 o'clock every day anyway.

A resolution was adopted formally requesting the County Commissioners to make sale of the $175,000 school bonds which were voted some time ago and which along with $100,000 road bonds were recently sold to the Wilmington banks. It is expected that the bonds will be delivered in a short time now when the money will be available. It is recited in the resolution that the board expects to build a number of new school buildings and make improvements to present buildings in time for the opening of the 1914 Fall session.

Report was made that 175 single desks for the city schools and 60 double desks for the rural schools had been purchased through C. W. Yates & Co.

The rural schools are up against much the same problem that confronts the city schools in the way of inadequate accommodations, many of the schools not being able to care properly for all the children desiring to attend. The County Board of Education will do all it can to relieve the situation both in the city and county, but very little can be done until the bond money is available and new buildings have been erected. The Delgado school has enrolled 95 children who are under the care of two teachers. Pending the erection of an additional room to the present building an effort will be made to secure a vacant store or some other building where a portion of the children can be cared for. This would necessitate the employment of an additional teacher. Myrtle Grove school was also reported as being crowded. There are 45 children enrolled and only one teacher. Members of the board thought it would be better to make no changes until a new building could be erected, which will probably be undertaken the latter part of November. When the new building is ready for occupancy an assistant teacher will be employed.

County Auditor Orrell was present with his books which were audited and approved by the board. His report showed a balance on hand in the school fund October 1st, of $223.87.

Chairman J. O. Carr presided and in attendance were Mr. B. Solomon and Prof. Washington Catlett, county superintendent.

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

Sis Baldwin, Colored, Given 13 Months on County Farm.

A round half dozen colored citizens faced the Recorder yesterday on a charge of nuisance by using loud and boisterous language, the same being indecent and a menace to public morals. Sis Baldwin, colored, who has acquired considerable notoriety by reason of her past misdoings, appeared, to his honor, to be the worst offender, and was given 12 months on the county farm. She also got 30 days on a charge of trespass. She appealed in both cases, and was committed to jail in default of bond in the sum of $200.

Rosey Teachey, Martha Wilson and Mary Jones Scott, all colored, were given six months each on the county farm on similar charges. The cases against Lucy Miller and James Miller, both colored, also charged with nuisance, were dismissed. Dick Wilson, colored, got drunk and was fined $5 and the costs. He went to the roads for 30 days in default of payment.

Frank Davis colored, was sent to the roads for three months for an alleged assault on Rebecca Green. Harvey Bryant, colored, was charged with hitting N. R. Davis, colored, with a rock, but the State couldn't prove it and he was discharged. Tom Jordan, colored, proved to be a working man, and was acquitted of a charge of being a vagrant.

There were a number of those who fell by the wayside Saturday by imbibing too freely of the "cup that cheers," and they were given the usual fine of $5 and costs.

NEGRO DIED SUDDENLY.

Expired Soon After Reaching Upper Compress Yesterday Morning.

Tolston Bailey, Jr., a well known colored man, about 35 years of age, died suddenly at the upper compress yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock. He went to the compress to secure work and soon after his arrival complained of severe abdominal pains. He died in about 20 minutes. Coroner John J. Fowler was notified and promptly responded. After examining several witnesses as to the circumstances attending the death he decided that the deceased came to his death from natural causes, and that an inquest was unnecessary. He turned the body over to the family for burial.

WEIGH YOURSELF BEFORE USING

Weigh yourself before commencing to use Samose, the great flesh-forming food. The wonderful sale on this preparation since first introduced in Wilmington, and the remarkable results following its use have made the J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., such enthusiastic believers in the great value of Samose that they give their personal guarantee to refund the money if Samose will not make thin people fat and restore strength and health to those who use it.

This is a strong guarantee, but the J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. has seen so many of their customers who a few weeks ago looked like walking skeletons become plump and well, solely through the use of Samose that they feel they cannot say too much to induce people to try it.

This marvelous flesh-forming food is assimilated as soon as it is taken into the stomach, makes good rich blood, tones up the weakened system, helps to assimilate the food and makes the user plump, well and rosy.

Greenville, N. C., Oct. 10.—At their graduation last year the class of 1913 at the East Carolina Teachers' Training School here left a loan fund to be used by the students of the schools. Three loans of $100 each for three years, at 6 per cent. interest, were to be granted to girls recommended by the president, and voted on by the faculty at its first regular meeting in October. The recipients of the loan must be either Juniors or Seniors and must have been at E. C. T. T. S. at least one year previous. On Tuesday last the meeting of the faculty was held and the three loans were granted to the following young ladies: Misses Luella Lancaster, of Edgecombe county; Lela Deans, of Nash county, and Mattie Bright, of Washington, N. C. To be the users of this 1913 loan fund is quite an honor, since one of the stipulations made in the grant is that the recipients keep an average quarterly mark of 2, which is next to the highest grade given by the school. To the young ladies are extended heartiest congratulations and to the Class of 1913 heartfelt thanks for their noble gift.

In the first round of match play tomorrow Miss Ravenscroft will meet Miss Frances Griscome, of Philadelphia, who made the course in 94. Miss Dodd will be opposed by Miss Edith Noblit, of this city, who had a card of 102.

CAPTAIN CARDEN RETURNS

Resumes Command of Revenue Cutter Seminole After Four Months' Absence on Special Duty—Glad to be Back.

Capt. G. L. Carden, who has been detached from his duties as commander of the revenue cutter Seminole for special duty under the Secretary of Commerce, has returned and resumed his duties on the Seminole. Capt. Carden is a most efficient officer, and has a large circle of friends here who will be glad to welcome him back. He has fallen in love with this port, and it was with smiling countenance that he greeted old acquaintances yesterday.

Capt. Carden's investigations were made under the direction of the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce with reference to tariff legislation. He had previously spent two years in Europe making investigations of iron and steel manufacturing plants, and it was by reason of this valuable experience that the department desired his services in connection with investigating the manufacture of machinery in the Central Western States. The results of Capt. Carden and others engaged in this special work will be embodied in a report which will be made to Congress for guidance in legislation.

Capt. Carden says that when he first started out on this investigation four months ago, he found the manufacturers rather pessimistic owing to the prospective changes in the tariff laws, but this pessimism, he says, has gradually disappeared as they have learned that they can meet changing conditions by improved and more efficient shop methods. This is a most helpful sign, he thinks, and indicates that business, especially in the manufacture of iron and steel tools, will continue to prosper.

Capt. Carden was particularly impressed with Secretary Redfield, whom he says, is evidently the right man in the right place. He is thoroughly acquainted with every detail of the business of the government entrusted to his care. He began at the bottom, and has made his way to the top of the ladder. His idea is to make the manufacturing plants of the country more efficient, and to this end he has secured leading efficiency men to make thorough investigations which will aid in the economy of production.

SPOILS TO THE VICTOR.

Giants Get $54,065.67 While Athletics Draw $81,100.

New York, Oct. 13.—The members of the New York National League club received their share of the world's series receipts today amounting to $54,065.67.

Divided among 25 players each man received a little more than $2,160 with the exception of Arthur Fletcher who was handed $100 less, the amount he was fined for arguing with Umpire Connolly.

Mathewson and Merkle, who applied for the players' money, presented a statement satisfactory to the National Commission regarding the literary efforts of some of the men. They reported that each player-author who wrote of the series signed his newspaper contract before the National Commission edict of September 27th, placing the ban on writing. The commission had threatened to fine any player who had made a contract after that date.

Tomorrow the National Commission will hand the Athletics, the world's champions, $81,100, their share of receipts, in Philadelphia.

..Theatrical..

"She Stoops to Conquer," Oliver Goldsmith's delightful comedy, was presented at the Academy of Music last night by Miss Annie Russell and her very capable company. While there were many vacant seats, the audience was fully as large, if not larger, than is usually the case in Wilmington when a play is presented. The audience was very appreciative and this was shown time and time again in the very generous applause. It was in every way a most pleasing comedy and the cast was a very capable one.

The Sensational Moral Play Tonight.

The Academy tonight offers the great New York success, "A Girl of the Underworld," that made even a bigger hit than "Within the Law," and an excellent cast will be seen in the rendition, while the production will be a fine one. The play is really a great sermon, preaching one of the biggest and livest of morals, and has been highly praised. Owing to the multiplicity of attractions on at the Academy this week a scale of popular prices has been arranged, being 10, 20, 30 and 50 cents, and seats are now selling at J. Hicks Bunting's drug store.

Much has been written by the press of the entire country on this vital subject, and the public has always been eager to scan the columns of the dailies for information as to what it really means. In the play Mr. Gorman tells a most tense and interesting story, yet at no time offensive even to the most blase theatre-goers. The story is laid in New York City and taken from actual incidents that the author encountered while on his travels in the very pits of the real underworld. During the action of the play the humorous side, too, is shown, which readily relieves the more intense moments of which there are said to be many. If one desires to get a complete view of real life in a big city, "The Girl of the Underworld" should appeal. The presenting company is one of real worth, while the scenic production is adequate in every detail.

"The Leopard's Spots."

Thomas Dixon's new play, "The Leopard's Spots," adapted from his famous novel, will be seen here on Thursday, matinee and night, at the Academy under the author's personal management.

Mr. Dixon's latest drama follows the book close enough to embody the salient and most interesting features of it, but combining several new incidents and characters which serve to make the play more attractive, startling and sensational.

Those familiar characters in the book that have been retained in the stage version are Tom Camp, the crippled Confederate soldier; his wife and daughter, General Worth, Shelby, the negro leader, and Allen McLeod. A new heroine is introduced in the play, increasing the love interest. Amid thrills and intense dramatic situations, delightful love scenes and touches of humor are intermingled. Expert authorities on the drama in New York have pronounced "The Leopard's Spots" to be a perfect piece of drama construction and superior to any of Mr. Dixon's previous successes.

Seats for both performances go on sale at J. Hicks Bunting's drug store this morning at 8:30 o'clock. Orders for seats by mail must be accompanied by check or cash, and will be filled in the order received. Address all such orders to Manager Comes, Academy of Music, this city.

A Delightful Cohan Success.

The well known musical comedy star, clever Bert Leigh, will greet Wilmington theatre-goers twice Saturday, appearing at matinee and night in George M. Cohan's delightful, merry success, "The Little Millionaire." Mr. Leigh is supported by a capable company, including charming Hazel Burgesse, and a superb event may be expected. Mr. Leigh and Miss Burgesse will be recalled by Wilmington playgoers for their big success here several years ago in George Cohan's "Forty-five Minutes From Broadway," which made such a big hit. "The Little Millionaire" is much better than this play and was one of New York's greatest triumphs. The press, including the Raleigh News and Observer and the Greensboro Daily News, has lavishly praised the attraction.

A special scale of prices will prevail for each performance. For matinee the prices will be 25 and 50 cents to any part of the theatre, and at night all seats downstairs, save boxes, will be $1 each, while the balcony will be held for 50 and 75 cents, with gallery 25 cents. Seats will go on sale at J. Hicks Bunting's drug store Friday morning at 8:30 o'clock.

Great Bill at Grand.

"Seeds of Wealth," pronounced as the greatest dramatic story, with a court room scene that is beyond that in the famed "Madame X," will head today's bill at the cozy, handsome Grand and will indeed offer something powerfully magnetic to lovers of the "movies." It is the story of the struggle of a poor young seamstress, who has to go to work in the home of a rich woman. She is accused of theft and the stolen article, a diamond necklace, is discovered in a flower pot in her home. In the court room, at the trial, and this is a big feature, the little daughter of the rich woman finally tells that she planted the necklace in the flower pot, hearing that the diamonds were "seeds of wealth" and she wanted money trees to grow. It's a big hit.

Selig's "The Lonely Heart" is also a great dramatic star today that will strike fire and immensely delight, while the latest Pathe Weekly is also a feature. In this weekly the last public appearance of the late Mayor Gaynor is shown, together with numerous other events, including several innings of a New York Giants game. There will, of course, be plenty of new music at the Grand today.

Big Throngs at Bijou.

Still the big things come to the popular Bijou and this, of course, means that big things come to the amusement-lovers of Wilmington, because the Bijou always shares its joys with the people of this city. Heading today's great bill at this attractive theatre is the Vitagraph's special two-reel release, "The Lost Millionaire," and a most distinguished cast appears in the great film masterpiece, headed by those two popular Thespians, Miss Anita Stewart and Mr. E. K. Lincoln. This great Vitagraph success thrills with the dramatic and at the same time possesses a large amount of comedy that will sparkle in every heart. The plot is something new and will have to be seen to be appreciated. Explanation would rob the amusement-lover of the novel surprises. It's something extra great, in fact.

The latest Biograph is also a star today, being "The Adopted Brother," which is the story of convicts and heroism. It is also unique and a great dramatic story.

There will be other fine features, thus making today one of pure delight for all Bijou-goers and marking up one of banner days in the history of the favorite theatre.

COL. ROBERTSON TO SUMTER.

Former Wilmingtonian Secured at Last as City Manager.

Many Wilmington friends of Col. W. F. Robertson, formerly a valued and highly esteemed citizen of this city, will be interested to know that Sumter, S. C., has at last been successful in its efforts to secure his as manager of that city, and he will leave Greenville, S. C., where he now resides, to take up his new duties about the first of November. The following is a dispatch from Sumter, with regard to the change:

"Mayor L. D. Jennings today announced that William F. Robertson, of Greenville, S. C., would be the next city manager for Sumter, taking the place of Mr. M. M. Worthington, who resigned several weeks ago, after serving the city for nine months. Mr. Jennings stated that Mr. Robertson would be here on the 1st of November to assume his duties, at which time Mr. Worthington's resignation takes effect.

"A year ago, when the city manager form of government first went into effect in Sumter, an effort was made to get the services of Mr. Robertson as city manager, but at that time the offer made him was not sufficiently attractive to induce him to accept the position, although he came here and looked the situation over carefully before announcing his decision not to accept. Since that time the Sumter city council have decided that they needed Mr. Robertson's services more than they did a year ago and some time ago he was again offered the position, this time at a salary of $3,300 a year, and he accepted it. The present city manager only gets a salary of $2,400 a year."

A dispatch from Greenville has the following further details:

"Mr. Robertson has been engaged in the fire insurance business since coming to Greenville. Before coming to this city he was a resident of Wilmington, N. C., where for 15 years he was in charge of the water and light company and for nine years served as a county commissioner.

"Mr. Robertson has for many years taken a keen interest in matters pertaining to municipal government. He has been chairman of a committee from the local Chamber of Commerce, which committee was entrusted with the drafting of a report on the commission form of government. This report, having in it varied information concerning this improved method of municipal government, will be designed to instruct the voters of Greenville in all the pros and cons of the system, so that when an election on the subject is called the voting may be done intelligently. As chairman of this committee, he has done excellent work. Greenville will lose a citizen who takes the initiative in matters worth while when Mr. Robertson leaves.

"The city manager plan was adopted by Sumter about one year ago. It is said to be an outgrowth of the commission form of government, its object being to conduct a city's affairs in the most businesslike method possible. Sumter was one of the first cities to adopt this plan. The largest city now operating its affairs under the managerial system is Dayton, Ohio. Staunton, Va., was the first city to have the managerial plan."

BASKETBALL SEASON BEGINS.

Opening Games of the Tuesday Night League This Evening.

The basketball season at the Boys' Brigade will be formally opened tonight when the teams composing the Tuesday Night League will begin their struggle for the minor league championship of the Brigade. Four good teams will enter this struggle and all will fight it out to the bitter end, each being determined not to yield a single point to any other team until this becomes absolutely necessary.

All the players in this league know that they are playing for more than the championship of this league, for it is a well recognized fact that the best of those who are developed this Winter will be drafted next season into the major, or Friday Night League, where they will be pitted against some of the best players in the city and the honor attached to this is sufficient to make all play up to their very best ability. Several new faces will be seen on these teams. Some of these are new members who have been promoted from Company C to Company B, while others are those who failed to keep up with the pace set by the other players in the Friday Night League and who were relegated to the minors. Last year this league was accepted as a joke by some of the players in the major league, but since it has been shown that this league forms a training camp for the youngsters it is being watched carefully by the captains of the Friday Night League teams.

Several good men have been drafted this year and they will be given a try-out this week and next to see if they are capable of meeting their old rivals successfully. The games tonight will begin at 8:15. Mr. J. U. King will be the official referee for this league this year. The Giants, Capt. C. W. Davis, will meet the Cubs, Capt. Brittain, while the Athletics, Capt. Fowler, will meet the Company B Juniors, Capt. Register. The public is invited to witness these games. Admission will be free. Ladies are especially welcome and those who attend may feel assured of receiving the most courteous treatment.

CENTRAL CAROLINA FAIR OPENS

Gates Swing Open Today—Good Roads Days—Rejuvenation of Greensboro Tobacco Market—Other News Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., Oct. 13.—The exhibitors, spielers and amusement folks have been coming in by the scores today and getting their booths and space allotments ready for the Central Carolina Fair, which will open tomorrow morning. There are many more exhibits in every department than ever before and the attractions on the midway are considerably increased. There are many entries to the races and Secretary Daniels says the racing programme is probably the best that has ever been orered in North Carolina. There are handsome purses offered for each day's racing and the winners will be able to carry away a good sized sum.

The Inter-Church Association has a booth at the fair, which indicates that the religious element of the city has given the fair its approval. This is a number of charts prepared by the Scientific Temperance Federation, showing the effect of alcoholic drinks on the human system. The action of the directors in closing the gates on Sunday this year so as to keep out the curious who usually go out on Sunday preceding the opening of the fair, has been generally commended by pastors and church people.

Chairman Boren, of the county commissioners, and the Greensboro Chamber of Commerce, are doing everything possible to make the two good roads days designated by Governor Craig a success. Mr. Boren has sent out a circular letter over the county calling the attention of people to the Governor's proclamation and asking them to co-operate in making it a great occasion in Guilford county and the State. Mr. Boren is also having the State and National governments to send good roads literature to leading citizens of the county. The idea is to have an overseer appointed for each piece of road in the county that will be worked and he will secure the co-operation of others.

Marshall A. Hudson, of New York, founder of the organized Bible class movement and president of the world-wide Barraca-Philathea Union, spoke tonight in Westminster Presbyterian church before a large audience. There are many organized classes in Greensboro and strong Baraca and Philathea Unions. The address was highly enjoyed.

The rejuvenation of the Greensboro tobacco market and the large sales here this season have been the surprise and the delight of every business man of the city. There is an unusually large crop in Guilford this year and the prospects are that most of this and some from surrounding counties will be marketed here this season. There are several additional buyers on the market and they have made the prices the highesst in years. More than a million and a half pounds have already been sold here this season. For this more than a quarter of a million dollars has been paid farmers of this section. On one day about $30,000 was paid for the tobacco sold here. The wonderful increase in sales here has brought to the city the head buyers of some of the big companies and additional facilities for handling the leaf have been installed.

The State Normal and Industrial College will soon have its handsome new Moller pipe organ ready for use. A representative of the factory is here installing it. This is one of the most complete two manual organs in the South. Nearly every effect possible on the large three manual instruments are possible on this organ. As soon as it is completed a concert will be given by the great organist, G. Scott Hunter, formerly of England, but now living in Washington City.

At a recent quarterly meeting of the West Greensboro charge of the M. E. church, South, strong resolutions were adopted by the members complimentary to Rev. W. L. Dawson, who has served for pastor four years and must, therefore, leave at the end of this conference year. Mr. Dawson is one of the ablest ministers in his conference and is greatly beloved by his people.

CHINESE SHIP TESTED.

New Republic Adds to Navy Another Vessel.

Philadelphia, Oct. 13.—The speed, gun and torpedo trials of the Chinese cruiser Fei Hung off the Delaware Capes during the last few days were very successful, according to a statement given out today by the New York Shipbuilding Company, which recently completed the warship for the Chinese government.

The Fei Hung arrived at the company's yard at Camden, N. J., today to be prepared for her long voyage to the East.

The trials, according to the company, have proved the ship, which is fitted with all the latest devices and improvements to be the speediest of her class afloat. Guaranteed by her builders to maintain a speed of 20 knots an hour, the Fei Hung attained a speed of 22 1-2 knots. A 24-hour endurance trial at a speed of 18 knots was run to determine the fuel consumption and this test was also declared to be satisfactory.

All the guns in the ship's armament were tested, being fired with full battle charges and Chinese officers who were on the trial trip, expressed themselves as satisfied with the performance of the ship.

The Fei Hung is a protected cruiser of about 26,000 tons displacement. She is 320 feet long. The propelling machinery consists of three steam turbines which are supplied with steam by three water tube boilers one of which is fitted for burning oil fuel. The armament of the Fei Hung consists of 6 4-inch, 2 3-inch rapid guns, six three pounders, two one pounder automatic guns and two 18-inch torpedo.

J. F. Hansley, 406 Walnut St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "My back and kidneys troubled me a great deal and I think it was due to my being on my feet so much. I suffered from dull, dragging backaches and I could not stoop without having sharp twinges in my loins. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and there was sediment in them. When I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a box from Bellamy's drug store and in a few days the pains and aches left. On New Postoffice at Birmingham, Alabama.

Washington, Oct. 13.—The Treasury Department today announced the details of its plans for the new postoffice building at Birmingham, Ala. Originally $210,000 was appropriated for the Birmingham site, but for the building and additional land the department proposes to use $1,000,000. The site is at the Northeast corner of Fifth and Eighteenth streets, and one of the best postoffice structures in the South is to be erected.

Of the 44 starters in the recent reliability run of the Omaha (Neb.) Motorcycle Club, 22 finished on schedule time. Eleven of these received perfect scores.

GERMAN SHIPS TO MEXICAN WATERS

cal moments of Mexico's internal strife.

Significance was attached to the action by official Washington, however, because it was accepted as indicating that European powers who previously had recognized the Huerta government—among which were Germany and Great Britain—now saw evidences of Huerta's inability to compose the situation. Latest advices to Washington are to the effect that the British government is deeply concerned over its recognition of Huerta and it is even declared reliably that King George and Queen Mary have taken a personal interest in the situation with a view to measures that would support the policy of the United States. It is reported that Great Britain is prepared at the first opportunity to repudiate the recognition and that failure of the Huerta administration to hold a constitutional election on October 26th probably would be held as sufficient cause. In this connection officials here recall the British government's recent statement that recognition of Huerta was "provisional pending an election."

May Sober Huerta.

It is believed by the Washington authorities that the sending of a German yessel immediately after the arrest of the members of the Chamber of Deputies may have a sobering effect on provisional President Huerta and prevent him from going to further extremes.

Strong representations went forth from the United States to the Mexican Federal authorities today calling on Gen. Huerta to protect the lives of the imprisoned deputies. It was pointed out that this action was taken not because the United States has any desire to interfere in the internal affairs of the Southern Republic, but in the cause of humanity. Similar representations were made when Madero and Suarez were arrested. Whether or not drastic action by the United States would follow should Huerta punish the deputies is one of the questions being discussed by those who are shaping the administration's policy.

No change in the attitude of this country was announced by President Wilson and his advisers are debating what the next steps should be and tomorrow's cabinet meeting may bring forth a decision on the subject.

Another development that is occupying the attention of the department officials is the yellow fever epidemic in Carmen and Campeche. American warships usually lie a few miles off the coast and are not in danger, but refugees who are being constantly picked up will be carefully examined. More care will be taken by the Navy doctors in granting shore leave to American sailors.

Surgeon General Blue, of the Public Health and Marine Hospital Service, is in close touch with the situation and is advising that all precautions be taken.

Yellow Fever at Carmen.

Washington, Oct. 13.—Yellow fever at Carmen and Campeche, both districts in Mexico from which American refugees are coming to the United States, was reported today to the public health service. Surgeon General Blue at once ordered measures to safeguard the border and other ports of entry.

German Ship in Mexican Waters.

Berlin, Oct. 13.—The Foreign Office here reached the conclusion this evening that the existing situation in Mexico is such as to necessitate the presence of a German warship in Mexican waters.

The cruiser Hertha, which now is being used as a school ship, probably will be selected as the most available warship for duty along the eastern coast of Mexico. She is now cruising in New England waters.

Deputies Are Safe.

Mexico City, Oct. 13.—President Huerta has assured the American charge de'affaires, Nelson O'Shaughnessy, that no violence will be done the imprisoned deputies. The American charge met the President by chance and in the course of the conversation warned him of the baneful effect which would be produced throughout the civilized world should harm come to the deputies.

Later the embassy received instructions from the State Department at Washington to make the precisely such representations; whereupon Mr. O'Shaughnessy formally communicated to the executive the Washington administration's expressions on the subject.

While promising that no harm would befall the prisoners and adding there never had been any intention to inflict physical injury General Huerta asserted that most of the deputies would have to stand trial for offenses against the government. He gave no intimation that any of them would be released in the near future.

Refugees Must Return.

Eagle Pass., Texas, Oct. 13.—Holding that they were likely to become public charges and therefore undesirable, United States immigration officials today forced 200 refugees, who crossed to Eagle Pass when Mexican government troops occupied Piedras Negras last week, to return to Mexico. The refugees protested vigorously against re-crossing the International boundary expressing fear for their lives so long as Piedras Negras remained under Federal control. General Mas, the government commander, however, has given assurance that they would not be molested.

Forced Into Army.

Mexico City, Oct. 13.—Representations have been made by the American embassy to the Mexican foreign office, that it has come to the knowledge of the embassy that C. Boussetti has been arrested and forced to enter the army now on the way to Quintanta Roo. The foreign minister, it is understood, has sent instructions that the man shall be returned.

Consul Phillip C. Hanna, at Monterey, has wired that he will be unable to communicate with the American refugees marooned between Monterey and Laredo. A member of the party of which General Felix Diaz is leader is authority for the statement that General Diaz intends to remain at Havana for a time. He regards it as futile to continue on to Mexico for the purpose of pushing his campaign. Federico Gamboa and Manuel Salero are busy preparing for the elections.

contributed $35,000 to the Underwood campaign, and that the people of Alabama did not know it.

Mr. Underwood declared when he took the floor that he had not wanted to be a candidate for President; that he had consented upon the basis that he should remain at his place in the House, framing a Tariff law upon which the party could base its campaign, and that he had nothing to do with the management of it, that being undertaken by Senator Bankhead.

Later, he said, he learned that Mr. Ryan had contributed to his campaign solely because he was a Southern man and he suggested that Mr. Hobson did not accuse Theodore Roosevelt or President Wilson of being tools of the interests because men of wealth contributed to their campaigns.

When challenged by Mr. Underwood as to his exact charges, Mr. Hobson stated that he had said to the people of Alabama that Underwood was a "dummy used by his managers in the interest of Wall Street," and that "if you were a dummy, then you could be used again by the liquor interest, or any other interests."

"I said to the people of Alabama," he said, "that the gentleman (Mr. Underwood) is simply the type of politician that had reigned, but is to be dethroned; a type that plays the game and allows to come into the game agencies that help to win. Without reflection upon his moral integrity or his character, I make that statement."

Mr. Underwood detailed his record of 18 years in Congress, challenging anyone to prove that he ever had voted for anything but the best interests of his constituents.

"No man and no interest, however great or important," he declared, "has ever used me as a tool or a dummy. I have just returned to the House a great trust placed in my hands that I in years gone by have been subject to those influences, and yet I challenge the gentleman from Alabama, or any other man here, to show that any influence has been used in my administration of that trust."

Answering the charge that he was favorable to the liquor interests, Mr. Underwood told of how he had supported and voted at the last session for the anti-shipping liquor bill, which the liquor interests did all in their power to kill.

"I have always sought to do my duty conscientiously," he continued. "There is no rerord in my 18 years of service of a liquor vote being dodged by me.

"If I have been the tool of Wall Street or the liquor inteersts then the Democratic party is too, because my record is the record of the Democratic party in 18 years of service."

Mr. Underwood said that the people of the Southern States who supported him at Baltimore would not have been ashamed if he had been nominated or elected.

"It was not a campaign contribution they were supporting!" he declared.

Turning to Mr. Hobson, the majority leader demanded that his Alabama colleague state in the presence of the House upon what he based his assertions that he (Underwood) had been the dummy of the liquor interests.

Mr. Hobson referred to the conference of the Tariff bill, which struck out the Pomerene amendment requiring the full revenue tax on brandies used in fortifying wines. He charged that in agreeing to it, Underwood has consented to let more than $7,000,000 rest in the pockets of the liquor interests."

After explaining briefly the history of that amendment, Underwood turned to Mr. Hobson's general charge.

"Is there any other man in this chamber who believes the charge that I am, or ever have been, the tool of Wall Street?" he demanded, turning in his place to face every member present.

"No, No!" shouted members of both sides.

The row veered to the pre-convention differences between Mr. Underwood and Mr. Bryan, and an editorial in which Mr. Bryan referred to Mr. Underwood as a "Wall Street candidate."

"Everyone knows that at one time there was a difference between Mr. Bryan and myself," said Mr. Underwood.

"We buried that difference for the benefit of the Democratic party. We have forgotten it. I challenge the gentleman from Alabama to get any statement from Mr. Bryan that I am a tool of any one."

TWICE IN TWO MONTHS.

Tennessee Legislature Sets New High Record for Call Sessions.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 13.—For the second time within as many months the Tennessee Legislature met in extraordinary session today to consider the so-called liquor law enforcement bills, advocated by Governor Hooper.

Early passage of the measures which were killed by a long, tumultous filibuster at the recent extraordinary session, was generally predicted tonight. No legislative business was transacted today, but representatives of regular and independent Democratic factions attended a "love feast" as which an agreement upon speedy enactment of the bills into law is said to have been reached.

any recess of Congress while the currency bill is pending.

"I think it would be a political blunder equal to a crime," said Senator Stone, of Missouri, at the conference with the President, "if we do not pass a currency bill during the present session. We cannot let it go over until December."

Senator Simmons said Democratic leaders would continue to work for a prompt termination of hearings and an early consideration of the bill. Senators Sheppard and James expressed emphatic views against any recess.

Representative Underwood discussed with the President the question of keeping a quorum in the House while the Senate committee was handling the currency question.

Debate in the Senate.

Washington, Oct. 13.—Debate in the Senate today made it quite plain that there is to be no adjournment or recess of Congress until the currency reform is disposed of. At the same time, with the prospect of having the currency measure brought into the Senate from the committee anywhere from early next month to some time in January, Democrats prepared to object to having any other general legislation set for consideration during the first two months of the regular session, beginning December 1st, on the ground that the legislative road must be kept clear for currency.

Senator Lewis, Democratic whip, voiced the sentiment of the majority leaders against any adjournment or recess.

"The invisible board of control which objects to domination of the finances of the country being placed in the hands of a visible board," said Senator Lewis. "The question now is whether we shall have these gentlemen to place themselves in the position before the country of having been able by their organized opposition to bully the Senate into having permitted a recess."

Senators Hoke Smith, Reed and others objected to setting any other legislation for consideration before February, Senator Smith blocking a plan to fix January 9th to 29th as the time for taking up a woman suffrage constitutional amendment.

Senator Borah and other Republicans insisted that the Senate should either attend to business or recess, and Senator Ashurst, Democrat, protested against the policy of recessing for three days at a time during the consideration of the currency bill, by the committee.

BRITISH LADIES IN TROUBLE.

Wield Chairs Like Clubs in Scrap With Police.

London, Oct. 13.—After a fierce struggle the police arrested Miss Sylvia Pankhurst at Bow Nests in the east end of London tonight where she was making a speech.

But when they got her outside the building with the intention of placing her in a taxicab and rushing her to Holloway jail, the militants attacked the police so savagely that they had to let her go and she escaped.

Miss Pankhurst, who has an uncompleted term of imprisonment to serve, was not recognized until she threw aside the disguise when about to elude the police and enter the building. She was warmly applauded as she stepped to the platform, but had been speaking only a few minutes when a body of uniformed police with drawn truncheons entered the hall and made a rush for the platform.

The audience rose and chairs began to fly, the invaders being the objective point. The police gained the platform and for ten minutes a desperate battle waged, the officers using their clubs freely and those on the platform utilizing chairs as weapons. The police succeeded in dragging Miss Pankhurst down to the floor of the house while reinforcements cleared the hall.

Miss Pankhurst announced later her intention to address a meeting in Poplar town hall tomorrow night.

"Every effort will be made to call to the attention of the notables of the royal wedding on Wednesday the tortures which the women of England have suffered for the enfranchisement of the sex."

MAKE NATIONAL INVENTORY.

Of Social Assets and Liability of Socialist Party.

Washington, Oct. 13.—The necessity for a National inventory of social assets and liabilities with a special investigation of the economic programme of the Socialists, is urged in a report made public today from the committee of the National Civic Federation, which is preparing to undertake such an inquiry.

Talcott Williams, J. W. Jenks, Chas. P. Nell, Ogden Mills, Nicholas F. Brady, John Hays Hammond, Samuel Gompers, George B. Cortelyou and George W. Perkins, are among the members of the committee. Its object is to develop what progress has been made along certain lines in the last few years, how progress has been retarded, what has caused it, and how to remove the barrier.

"At the last Presidential election," says the report, "nearly one million votes were cast in favor of an economic programme calling for a revolutionary transformation of society. The party supporting this programme proposes the abolition of our system of wages and private property and the substitution therefor of government ownership and operation of all the instruments of production distribution and exchange.

"Recently and element within the revolutionary movement referred to has confronted this country with a yet more radical proposal. This element avowedly aims at the communistio operation of industries, which are to be confiscated through the general strike and directly operated by the workers themselves.

"Does either of these programmes point the way to progress? There seems no room for question that it is both desirable and possible by a thorough and impartial searching out of the facts to measure broadly the gains and the losses of our changing time."

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 13.—The arrest of three girls and eight boys, ranging in age from 14 to 18 years, today revealed a remarkable gang of youthful thieves operating in this city. Two have confessed. The police declare that the boys and girls have been plotting and executing robberies for several months, and that their loot amounts to more than $1,000.

BITS OF HISTORY.

Discovery of America

On the 12th day of October, 1492, Columbus was watching on the deck when land was sighted and at 2 A. M. the Island of Guanahani spread before him. His troubles were over and he had many. His crew had been in a mutinous state to throw him overboard.

If any man will fight the battles of life as they come to him with the same dogged determination which Columbus exhibited, his success will be assured.

Money will overcome most of our troubles and we will all have it if we exercise patience and reef our expenses at the proper time.
